A Trouser Wearing Character The Life And Times Of Nancy Spain:

A Trouser-wearing Character Rose Collis,1997 When Nancy Spain died in a plane crash in 1964 aged 47 with her partner Joan Werner Laurie she was at the height of a brilliant media career A famous all media celebrity of the time she was a seasoned journalist and writer with over 10 camp and frothy crime novels to her name She later moved into radio and TV quickly becoming an established panelist on Juke Box Jury and What s My Line as well as a knowledgeable and lively contributor to Woman s Hour

Murder in the Closet Curtis Evans,2017-01-11 Before the 1969 Stonewall Riots LGBTQ life was dominated by the negative image of the closet the metaphorical space where that which was deemed queer was hidden from a hostile public view Literary studies of queer themes and characters in crime fiction have tended to focus on the more positive and explicit representations since the riots while pre Stonewall works are thought to reference queer only negatively or obliquely This collection of new essays questions that view with an investigation of queer aspects in crime fiction published over eight decades from the corseted Victorian era to the unbuttoned 1960s

The Adventures of Margery Allingham Julia Jones,2009 This biography was researched in the very room where Margery Allingham worked and was written with the full co operation of Margery s sister her secretary and her housekeeper It was first published in 1991 Since then however new material has become available including a revelatory collection of letters and the startling truth about her husband s relationship with the writer Nancy Spain Was there a corpse underneath the sofa The book s new title new introduction and afterword invite the reader to look again The Adventures of Margery Allingham is a new edition of Margery Allingham a Biography published by William Heinemann Ltd in 1991

The Lives of Older Lesbians Jane Traies,2016-06-24 This unique book sheds new light on the most invisible members of the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community Hidden from view by a combination of prevailing cultural assumptions and their own unwillingness to be seen older lesbians have been consistently under represented in both popular culture and research This ground breaking study based on an unprecedentedly large research sample of nearly four hundred lesbian identified women between the ages of 60 and 90 offers a fascinating insight into the lives of older lesbians in the UK Drawing on data from a comprehensive questionnaire survey and illustrated with vivid personal testimonies it explores both the diversity and the distinct collective identity of the older lesbian community arguing that understanding their past experience is crucial to providing for their needs in the future It is essential reading for scholars in the fields of women s studies and genders and sexualities and will also appeal to sociologists political scientists anthropologists social and cultural historians and experts in ageing gerontology nursing and social work

Sapphists and Sexologists; Histories of Sexualities Mary McAuliffe, Sonja Tiernan,2009-03-26 Sapphists and Sexologists Histories of Sexualities Volume II contributes to the ever evolving debates on lesbian lives and histories This volume includes a mixture of engaging essays from established and young scholars and opens with a succinct incisive and often comical take on lesbian lives relationships and cats by internationally esteemed scholar

Sally R Munt Unique essays include the personal reflections on writing historical fiction by the celebrated author Emma Donoghue and an exclusive conversational record from Joan Nestle on her life loves and activism The scope of this collection is truly international a collaborative work of scholars from many different disciplines universities and countries The central theme of the book continues from the first volume Tribades Tommies and Transgressives Histories of Sexualities in its questioning of established histories of sexualities methodologies and theoretical practices Mysteries Unlocked Curtis Evans,2016-04-19 In honor of the 70th birthday of Professor Douglas G Greene mystery genre scholar and publisher this book offers 24 new essays and two reprinted classics on detective fiction by contributors around the world including ten Edgar Mystery Writers of America winners and nominees The essays cover a myriad of authors and books from more than a century from J S Fletcher s The Investigators originally serialized in 1901 to P D James Death Comes to Pemberley published at the end of 2011 Subjects covered include detective fiction in the Edwardian era and the Golden Age between the two world wars hard boiled detective fiction mysteries and intellectuals and pastiches short stories and radio plays Queen of the Court Madeleine Blais,2023-08-15 From the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Madeleine Blais the dramatic and colorful story of legendary tennis star and international celebrity Alice Marble In August 1939 Alice Marble graced the cover of Life magazine photographed by the famed Alfred Eisenstaedt She was a glamorous worldwide celebrity having that year won singles women s doubles and mixed doubles tennis titles at both Wimbledon and the US Open then an unprecedented feat Yet today one of America s greatest female athletes and most charismatic characters is largely forgotten Queen of the Court places her back on center stage Born in 1913 Marble grew up in San Francisco her favorite sport baseball Given a tennis racket at age 13 she took to the sport immediately rising to the top with a powerful aggressive serve and volley style unseen in women s tennis A champion at the height of her fame in the late 1930s she also designed a clothing line in the off season and sang as a performer in the Sert Room of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York to rave reviews World War II derailed her amateur tennis career but her life off the court was if anything even more eventful She wrote a series of short books about famous women She turned professional and joined a pro tour during the War entertaining and inspiring soldiers and civilians alike Ever glamorous and connected she had a part in the 1952 Tracy and Hepburn movie Pat and Mike and she played tennis with the likes of Charlie Chaplin Marlene Dietrich and her great friends Clark Gable and Carole Lombard However perhaps her greatest legacy lies in her successful efforts working largely alone to persuade the all white US Lawn Tennis Association to change its policy and allow African American star Althea Gibson to compete for the US championship in 1950 thereby breaking tennis s color barrier In two memoirs Marble also showed herself to be an at times unreliable narrator of her own life which Madeleine Blais navigates skillfully especially Marble s dramatic claims of having been a spy during World War II In Queen of the Court the author of the bestselling In These Girls Hope Is a Muscle recaptures a glittering life story Queer 1950s H. Bauer,M. Cook,2012-10-15 Leading sexuality scholars explore queer lives and cultures in the first full
