Gartner,1988 ONR Far East Scientific Bulletin , Government-supported Research International Affairs; Research Completed and in Progress July 1969-June 1970 Allan E. Suchinsky,United States State Government,1971 The document describes current research projects those initiated in progress and completed during fiscal year 1970 in the social and behavioral sciences dealing with international affairs foreign areas and United States foreign policy for the use primarily of research officers throughout the Government The research descriptions are arranged by subject matter with cross references as appropriate at the end of each section Author How Far Across the River? Nicholas Hope,Dennis Yang,Mu Li,2003-08-13 Gradual change has been a hallmark of the Chinese reform experience and China s success in its sequential approach makes it unique among the former command economies Since 1979 with the inception of the continuing era of reform the Chinese economy has flourished Growth has averaged nine percent a year and China is now a trillion dollar economy China has become a major trading power and the predominant target among developing countries for foreign direct investment Despite all this China remains poor and the reform process unfinished This book takes its defining theme from Deng Xiaopeng s famous metaphor for gradual reform feeling the stones to cross the river How far has China progressed in fording the river The experts who contributed to this volume tackle many aspects of that question assessing Chinese progress in policy reform priorities for further reform and the research still needed to inform policymakers decisions Rural Development in Asia, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs... United States. own sound foundations This paper traces the origin and evolution of this Pahari language based on socio economic and historical events of the region It is expected that the present work will provide an impetus to researchers to preserve this language from extinction Millard's Review of the Far East ,1928 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925
