

The background of the book cover is an abstract painting in Piet Mondrian's De Stijl style. It features a network of thick, black, hand-drawn lines on a light cream-colored background. The lines are mostly horizontal and vertical, with some diagonal ones, creating a sense of dynamic tension. The lines vary in thickness and are somewhat irregular, giving it a gestural feel. There are several small, solid black squares scattered throughout the composition. The overall effect is one of geometric abstraction and modernist design.
