Love, 2006-09-22 Documents the key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement This work tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws Alice Neel: People Come First Kelly Baum, Randall Griffey, Meredith A. Temkin, 2021-03-15 For me people come first Alice Neel 1900 1984 declared in 1950 I have tried to assert the dignity and eternal importance of the human being This ambitious publication surveys Neel's nearly 70 year career through the lens of her radical humanism Remarkable portraits of victims of the Great Depression fellow residents of Spanish Harlem leaders of political organizations queer artists visibly pregnant women and members of New York's global diaspora reveal that Neel viewed humanism as both a political and philosophical ideal In addition to these paintings of famous and unknown sitters the more than 100 works highlighted include Neel's emotionally charged cityscapes and still lifes as well as the artist's erotic pastels and watercolors Essays tackle Neel's portrayal of LGBTQ subjects her unique aesthetic language which merged abstraction and figuration and her commitment to progressive politics civil rights feminism and racial diversity The authors also explore Neel's highly personal preoccupations with death illness and motherhood while reasserting her place in the broader cultural history of the 20th century A to Z of American Women in the Visual Arts Carol Kort, Liz Sonneborn, 2014-05-14 Presents biographical profiles of American women of achievement in the field of visual arts including birth and death dates major accomplishments and historical influence Women Artists at the Millennium Carol Armstrong, Catherine De Zegher, 2011-02-25 Artists art historians and critics look at the legacies of feminism and critical theory in the work of women artists more than thirty years after the beginning of the modern women's movement and Linda Nochlin's landmark essay Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists More than thirty years after the birth of the modern women's movement and the beginnings of feminist art making and art history the time is ripe to examine the legacies of those revolutions In Women Artists at the Millennium artists art historians and critics examine the differences that feminist art practice and critical theory have made in late twentieth century art and the discourses surrounding it In 1971 when Linda Nochlin published her essay Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists in a special issue of Art News there were no women's studies no feminist theory no such thing as feminist art criticism there was instead a focus on the mythic figure of the great male artist through history Since then the woman artist has not simply been assimilated into the canon of greatness but has expanded art making into a multiplicity of practices with new parameters and perspectives In Women Artists at the Millennium artists including Martha Rosler and Yvonne Rainer reflect upon their own varied practices and art historians discuss the innovative work of such figures as Louise Bourgeois Lygia Clark Mona Hatoum
