Artforum, 1966 Performance: pt. 1. Identity and the self Philip Auslander, 2003 This collection reflects not only the multidisciplinary nature of current thinking about performance but also the complex and contested nature of the concept itself After Modern Art 1945-2000 David Hopkins, 2000-09-14 Contemporary art can be baffling and beautiful provocative and disturbing This pioneering book presents a new look at the controversial period between 1945 and 2000 when art and its traditional forms were called into question It focuses on the relationship between American and European art and challenges previously held views about the origins of some of the most innovative ideas in art of this time Major artists such as Jackson Pollock Jasper Johns Yves Klein Andy Warhol Louise Bourgeois Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst are all discussed as is the art world of the last fifty years Important trends are also covered including Abstract Expressionism Pop Art Minimalism Conceptualism Postmodernism and the art of the nineties Modernism in Dispute John Harris, Paul Wood, Francis Frascina, Jonathan Harris, Charles Harrison, 1993-01-01 This volume is part of a four volume series about art and its interpretation in the 19th and 20th centuries The books provide an introduction to modern European and American art and criticism that should be valuable both to students and to the general reader "Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010" Xin Wu, 2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years career of Patricia Johanson an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century Examining the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the post World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson's artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist's concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson's oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea National Gallery of Canada Douglas Ord, 2003-05-26 Ord looks at the gallery's historical and intellectual context from 1910 when Eric Brown became the gallery's founding director through Jean Sutherland Boggs to Shirley Thomson shedding light on its acquisitions government policy towards the arts and the public's deep rooted suspicion of avant garde art In showing how Canadian art came to be housed in a building whose architectural and ideological sources include Gothic cathedrals Islamic mosques Egyptian temples St Peter s Basilica and the squared stone facades of the Holy City of Jerusalem The National Gallery of Canada insightfully explores the relationship of Canada s art and its National Gallery to the project of the Canadian nation state The Revival of Beauty Catherine Wesselinoff,2023-08-18 This book provides original descriptive accounts of two schools of thought in the philosophy of beauty the 20th century Anti Aesthetic movement and the 21st century Beauty Revival movement It also includes a positive defence of beauty as a lived experience extrapolated from Beauty Revival position Beauty was traditionally understood in the broadest sense as a notion that engages our sense perception and embraces everything evoked by that perception including mental products and affective states This book constructs and places in parallel with one another the Anti Aesthetic and Beauty Revival movements In the author s view Anti Aestheticism is devoted to a decisive negation of beauty denying its importance as a philosophical notion and its significance as a lived experience It suggests that beauty is a merely sensual experience which can be used at best as a distraction from justice and at worst as an instrument of evil Alternatively the Beauty Revival movement advances arguments for beauty as an experience that extends primarily to sensual experience but which also calls forth mental products and cognitive and affective states evoked by that experience After reconstructing these two positions the author elaborates on the notion of beauty as a lived experience through three key moments which occur in the process of our experiencing beautiful objects These moments are a the conditions that constitute an experience of beauty b the attitudinal features most likely to lead to the experience of beauty and c the results of the experience of beauty The Revival of Beauty will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in aesthetics history of philosophy and art history
