Modlin, MD, MBA, 2021-08-17 As a renowned kidney transplant surgeon and one of a small number of African Americans to hold such a title Dr Charles Modlin has overcome enormous odds roadblocks and trials In his book It Isn't Difficult to Do It if You Know How to Do It he provides an extensive compilation of the successful strategies used to overcome challenges and accomplish his goals in hopes of encouraging high school students and college students whose ambition is to succeed in life From life in high school through applying and succeeding in college through the beginnings of one's professional years It Isn't Difficult to Do It if You Know How to Do It not only outlines the proven tactics to embrace but also offers navigation around many of the pitfalls that entrap youth and prevent success in college and graduation This resource is written specifically for ambitious high school students and college students who are aiming to achieve no matter their goals This book details for the reader the most important guidelines for youth to consider when transitioning from high school to college and beyond that Dr Modlin has learned from his childhood through medical school and eventually his profession as a kidney transplant surgeon      Bridging the Gap Lesley Roessing, 2014-07-30 One of the most popular literary genres memoir can provide literary and literacy access to reluctant adolescent readers and writers and help bridge the achievement gap by motivating students to read more critically and write more meaningfully about what matters most to them The introspective nature of memoir helps students learn about themselves and connect with their environment or community while also meeting a variety of Common Core standards In this way memoirs and creative nonfiction can provide a bridge between fiction and nonfiction reading narrative and informative writing reading and writing and can afford a way in to literacy for all adolescents Special features of the book examples of multiple mentor texts in each chapter teacher examples with think aloud exercises a variety of student samples from diverse learners activities to engage all learners an appendix of teacher resources a reference list of over 150 full length memoirs for grades 5-12 for whole class book club or independent reading a list of writing resources for students and teachers 12 full size reproducible materials for teacher and student use a variety of reading writing speaking and listening strategies and activities across disciplines applications and adaptations for diverse learners daily writing focus lessons in gradual release responsibility format Common Core State Standard connections at the end of each chapter      Where You Go Is Not Who You'll Be Frank Bruni, 2015-03-17 Read award winning journalist Frank Bruni's New York Times bestseller an inspiring manifesto about everything wrong with today's frenzied college admissions process and how to make the most of your college years Over the last few decades Americans have turned college admissions into a terrifying and occasionally devastating process preceded by test prep tutors all sorts of stratagems all kinds of rankings and a conviction among too many young people that their futures will be determined and their worth established by which schools say yes and which say no In Where You Go is Not Who You ll Be Frank Bruni explains why this mindset is wrong giving students and their parents a new perspective on this brutal deeply flawed competition and a path out of the anxiety that it provokes Bruni a bestselling author and a columnist for the New York Times shows that the Ivy League has no monopoly on corner offices governors mansions or the most prestigious academic and scientific grants Through statistics surveys and the stories of hugely successful people he demonstrates that many kinds of colleges serve as ideal springboards And he illuminates how to make the most of them What matters in the end are students efforts in and out of the classroom not the name on their diploma Where you go isn t who you ll be Americans need to hear that and this indispensable manifesto says it with eloquence and respect for the real promise of higher education

Conning Harvard Julie Zauzmer,Xi Yu,2013-09-03 In 2011 a 24 year old man pled guilty to falsifying his application to Harvard University bilking the world s most prestigious university out of more than 45 000 in prizes and scholarships Using forged SAT scores transcripts and letters of recommendation Adam Wheeler outsmarted Harvard s admissions office and then went even further Once accepted into the Ivy League he kept lying cheating and succeeding winning thousands of dollars in prizes and grants But then he shot too far During his senior year Wheeler applied for Rhodes and Fulbright scholarships a gamble that finally exposed his extensive tangle of lies Alerted that he was under suspicion Wheeler fled Harvard but did not stop He successfully filed more fraudulent applications at top tier schools across the country until some vigilant admissions officers Massachusetts police and even his own parents forced him off his computer and into court As reporters for The Harvard Crimson Julie Zauzmer and Xi Yu covered the case from the moment the news of Wheeler s indictment broke In the course of their reporting they interviewed dozens of friends roommates teachers and advisors who knew Wheeler at the many phases of his suspect academic career Their fascinating account reveals how one serial scammer took on the competitive world of the Ivy League and almost won
