Adventure In The Sky:

Adventures in the Sky James J. Smythe, 2025-10-21 This story is about two young clouds who are moving through the sky for the first time They laugh and have fun and they decide to become friends Due to very strong winds they are separated from each other Their journey begins as they look for each other throughout the sky Along the way they meet many wise and encouraging clouds who teach them the importance of having faith love friendship courage and never losing hope They learn being a cloud is a great adventure And they learn so much about what happens in the sky and how each cloud has a purpose Clouds enjoy changing shapes each and every day Do not be afraid of changes in your life Cielo Change is part of your life So now I am a rain cloud Is that what I am I have never heard of a rain cloud shouts Cambia Oh it sounds like being a rain cloud is important It feels so good to be important Friends help their friends when they need them And remember Cambia always treat your friends the way you like to be treated Do you think the Master of the Sky will help me find Cielo asks Cambia The Master of the Sky is in control of the wind And he is in control of the sky After reading Adventures in the Sky I never look at clouds the same This is a playful and delightful story Smythe uses personification of cloud formations by inventing characters with personality traits For example Boomer the Lightning and Thunder Cloud from Nimbus Ville teaches Cambia all about lightning and thunder Meanwhile Cielo learns all about being a snow making cloud from Zapada the Big Snow Cloud I encourage you to read this charming book with a child or a good friend I have done so and it has made a lifelong memory I also encourage you to become an avid cloud gazer Kate Sutherland Retired elementary and junior high school teacher of 40 years 2
