and the Global Cold War 'East' Lena Dallywater,Chris Saunders,Helder Adegar Fonseca,2019-06-17 In the global context of the Cold War the relationship between liberation movements and Eastern European states obviously changed and transformed Similarly forms of material aid and ideological encouragement underwent changes over time The articles assembled in this volume argue that the traditional Cold War geography of bi polar competition with the United States is not sufficient to fully grasp these transformations The question of which side of the ideological divide was more successful or lucky in impacting actors and societies in the global south is still relevant yet the Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that exists until today Acknowledging the complexities of liberation movements in globalization processes the papers thus argue that activities need to be understood in their local context including personal agendas and internal conflicts rather than relying primarily on the traditional frame of Cold War competition They point to the agency of individual activists in both Africa and Eastern Europe and the lessons practices and languages that were derived from their often contradictory encounters In Southern African Liberation Movements authors from South Africa Portugal Austria and Germany ask What role did actors in both Southern Africa and Eastern Europe play What can we learn by looking at biographies in a time of increasing racial and international conflict And which creative solutions need to be found to combine efforts of actors from various ideological camps Building on archival sources from various regions in different languages case studies presented in the edition try to encounter the lack of a coherent state of the art They aim at combining the sometimes scarce sources with qualitative interviews to give answers to the many open questions regarding Southern African liberation movements and their connections to the East West

Germany and Namibia's Path to Independence, 1969-1990 Thorsten Kern,2019-06-05 Namibia s main liberation movement the South West Af rica People s Organisation SWAPO relied heavily on outside support for its armed struggle against South Africa s occupation of what it called South West Africa While East Germany s solidarity with Namibia s struggle for national self determination has received attention little research has been done on West Germany s policy towards Namibia which must be seen in the light of inter German rivalry The impact of the wider realities of the Cold War on Namibia s rocky path to independence leaves ample room for research and new interpretations In this study Thorsten Kern shows that German division played a vital role in West Germany s position towards Namibia during the Cold War The two states deeply diverging policies characterised in this context by competition for influence over SWAPO were strongly affected by the Cold War rivalry between the capitalist West and the communist East Yet ultimately the dynamics of rapprochement helped to bring about Namibia s independence This book is based upon a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Cape Town in 2016 Kern conducted research in the National Archives of Namibia and in German archives and his work draws on interviews with contemporary witnesses The West Stole Africa's Wealth Khoza Mduduzi,2015-07-28 The West stolen Africas wealth and invested it in the IMF World Bank and European Bank Through the colonization of Africa the West not only managed to impoverish the African continent but it managed to build its own world class infrastructure through ill gotten wealth from Africa Africa is the richest continent on the face of the world as far as mineral resources is concern but Africans are the poorest people on the face of the world Its an open secret that the majority of skyscrapers in the US were built by African slaves who were bought from Gore Island in Senegal at the cheapest price and transported to the US From the Dark Age until to the information age the African continent is the only continent where there is no perennial political peace Africans have been on the run from their civil wars for quite a long period of time to the point that some Africans have emigrated from the African continent to live in the West where they are not even welcomed and accepted African mineral resources are sufficient enough to the point that if they were equally and fairly utilized in the interest of the Africa people Africa was going to be a poverty free continent Unfortunately opposite is the case the African mineral resources continue to enrich the Westerners at the expense of the African people Africans are political free but remain economically in prison which they cant see smell touch or feel The west destabilizes the African continent by pouring military weapons to the African continent to ensure that bloodshed does not cease
