Anonymous Black Woman:

Black Female Intellectuals in Nineteenth Century America Rebecca J. Fraser, 2022-12-30 Drawing on letters personal testimony works of art novels and historic Black newspapers this book is an interdisciplinary exploration of Black women's contributions to the intellectual life of nineteenth century America Black Female Intellectuals in Nineteenth Century America reconceptualizes the idea of what the term intellectual means through its discussions of both familiar and often forgotten Black women including Edmonia Lewis Harriet Powers Sojourner Truth and Harriet Tubman amongst others This reenvisioning brings those who have previously been excluded from the scholarship of Black intellectualism more generally and Black female intellectuals specifically into the center of the debate Importantly it also situates the histories of Black women participating in the intellectual cultures of the United States much earlier than most previous scholarship This book will be of interest to both undergraduate and postgraduate specialists and students in the fields of African American history women's and gender history and American studies as well as general readers interested in historical and biographical works Quilt Culture Cheryl B. Torsney, Judy Elsley, 1994 As a blanket a commemorative covering and a work of art the quilt is a nearly universal cultural artifact In recent years it has been recognized as one of our most compelling symbols of cultural diversity and the power of women In this collection Cheryl B Torsney and Judy Elsley bring together eleven provocative essays on the quilt as metaphor in literature history politics and philosophy This interdisciplinary approach makes Quilt Culture an extraordinarily rich exploration of a cultural artifact whose meaning is far more complex than that of a simple bed covering Publishers website Women of Color Political Elites in the U.S. Nadia E. Brown, Christopher J. Clark, Anna Mitchell Mahoney, 2023-03-31 This volume presents a detailed and in depth examination of women of color political elites in the United States in varying levels of office and non elected positions Through innovative data novel theoretical frameworks and compelling arguments the chapters in this book explore how women of color political elites are changing challenging or upending the status quo in American politics Beyond an additive approach of either race or gender the authors in this volume employ an intersectional lens to explore the complexities of governing running for office and adjudicating in a diversifying America This book will be of great value to upper level students researchers and academics of political science interested in women's and gender studies political leadership as well as race and ethnic studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Women Politics and Policy The ^Aerotics of Talk Carla Kaplan, 1996-12-12 Is feminism in crisis With many feminists now questioning identification and focusing on differences between women what is the fate of feminist criticism's traditional imperative to rescue women's stories and make their voices heard In this provocative rereading of the classic texts of the feminist literary canon Carla Kaplan takes a hard look at the legacy of feminist criticism and argues that important features of feminism's own canon have been overlooked in the rush to rescue and identify texts African American women's texts she demonstrates often dramatize their distrust of their readers their lack of faith in the cultural conversation through strategies of self silencing and self talk At the same time she argues the homoerotics of women s writing has too often gone unremarked Not only does longing for an ideal listener draw women s texts into a romance with the reader but there is an erotic excess which is part of feminist critical recuperation itself Drawing on a wide range of resources from sociolinguistics and anthropology to literary theory Kaplan s highly readable study proposes a new model for understanding and representing talk She supplies fresh readings of such feminist classics as Jane Eyre The Yellow Wallpaper Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Their Eyes Were Watching God and The Color Purple revealing how their erotics of talk works as a rich political allegory and form of social critique

Free Joan Little Christina Greene,2022-10-05 Early on a summer morning in 1974 local officials found the jailer Clarence Alligood stabbed to death in a cell in the women s section of a rural North Carolina jail Fleeing the scene was Joan Little twenty years old poor Black and in trouble After turning herself in Little faced a possible death sentence in the state s gas chamber At her trial which was followed around the world Little claimed that she had killed Alligood in self defense against sexual assault Local and national figures took up Little s cause protesting her innocence After a five week trial Little was acquitted But the case stirred debate about a woman s right to use deadly force to resist sexual violence Through the prism of Little s rape murder trial and the Free Joan Little campaign Christina Greene explores the intersecting histories of African American women mass incarceration sexual violence and social movements of the 1970s and 1980s Greene argues that Little s circumstances prior to her arrest assault and trial were shaped by unprecedented increases in federal financing of local law enforcement and a decades long criminalization of Blackness She also reveals tensions among Little s defenders and recovers Black women s intersectional politics of the period which linked women s prison protest and antirape activism with broader struggles for economic and political justice

Female Subjects in Black and White Elizabeth Abel,Barbara Christian,Helene Moglen,2023-09-01 This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues as the primacy of sexual difference the universal nature of psychoanalytic categories and the role of race in the formation of identity They offer new ways of approaching African American texts and reframe our thinking about the contexts discourses and traditions of the American cultural landscape Calling for the racialization of whiteness and claiming that psychoanalytic theory should make room for competing discourses of spirituality and diasporic consciousness these essays give shape to the many stubborn incompatibilities as well as the transformative possibilities between white feminist and African American cultural formations Bringing into conversation a range of psychoanalytic feminist and African derived spiritual perspectives these essays enact an inclusive politics of reading Often explosive and always provocative Female Subjects in Black and White models a new cross racial feminism This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues

In Search of Our Mothers' Gardens Alice Walker, 2004 Walker's essays and articles written between 1966 and 1982 discuss the concept and influence of art and the artist's life criticisms of authors such as Jean Toomer and Zora Neale Hurston studies in the civil rights movement and feminist movement and her own ideas while writing her book The Color Purple

Revolutionary Masculinity and Racial Inequality Bonnie A. Lucero, 2021-12-01 One of the most paradoxical aspects of Cuban history is the coexistence of national myths of racial harmony with lived experiences of racial inequality Here a historian addresses this issue by examining the ways soldiers and politicians coded their discussions of race in ideas of masculinity during Cuba's transition from colony to republic Cuban insurgents the author shows rarely mentioned race outright Instead they often expressed their attitudes toward racial hierarchy through distinctly gendered language revolutionary masculinity By examining the relationship between historical experiences of race and discourses of masculinity Lucero advances understandings about how racial exclusion functioned in a supposedly raceless society Revolutionary masculinity she shows outwardly reinforced the centrality of color blindness to Cuban ideals of manhood at the same time as it perpetuated exclusion of Cubans of African descent from positions of authority

Split-Gut Song Karen Jackson Ford, 2015-09-15 A deft study of the evolving literary aesthetic of one of the first avant garde black writers in America In Split Gut Song Karen Jackson Ford looks at what it means to be African American free and creative by analyzing Jean Toomer's main body of work specifically his groundbreaking creation Cane When first published in 1923 this pivotal work of modernism was widely hailed as inaugurating a truly artistic African American literary tradition Yet Toomer's experiments in literary form are consistently read in terms of political radicalism protest and uplift rather than literary radicalism Ford contextualizes Toomer's poetry letters and essays in the literary culture of his period and through close readings of the poems shows how they negotiate formal experimentation imagism fragmentation dialect and traditional African American forms slave songs field hollers call and response sermons lyric poetry At the heart of Toomer's work is the paradox that poetry is both the saving grace of African American culture and that poetry cannot survive modernity This contradiction Ford argues structures Cane wherein traditional lyric poetry first flourishes then falters then falls silent The Toomer that Ford discovers in Split Gut Song is a complicated contradictory poet who brings his vexed experience and ideas of racial identity to both conventional lyric and experimental forms Although Toomer has been labelled a political radical Ford argues that politics is peripheral in his experimental stream of consciousness work Rather Toomer exhibits a literary radicalism as he struggles to articulate his perplexed understanding of race and art in 20th century America

Are You Still Watching? Stephanie Kendell , Arthur Stewart, 2022-10-25 Pop culture does more than entertain us At its best it is a mirror maybe sometimes a distorted funhouse mirror reflecting back to us beauty absurdity and profound truth of what it means to be human These musicians actors writers and producers often sit in the prophet's chair and offer us modern parables with deeper meanings waiting for those with ears to hear When we watch and listen through a spiritual lens their stories challenge our beliefs help us understand our faith and encourage us to find ways to change how we treat others and the world we share Are You Still Watching Using Pop Culture to Tune In Find God and Get Renewed for Another Season highlights different entertainment vehicles like television shows movies music and podcasts that showcase the best in humanity or demonstrate ways we can grow in our faith
