Another Summer:

De Bow's Review, 1854 The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China, and Australia, 1844 Walden Henry David Thoreau, 2006-01-01 This handsome affordable paperback edition is based on the original 1854 edition with emendations taken from Thoreau's draft manuscripts his own markings on page proofs and notes in his personal copy of the book Metafiction and the Postwar Novel Andrew Dean, 2021-04-01 Metafiction and the Postwar Novel is a full length reassessment of one of the definitive literary forms of the postwar period sometimes known as postmodern metafiction In the place of large scale theorizing this book centres on the intimacies of writing situations metafiction as it responds to readers literary reception and earlier works in a career The emergence of archival materials and posthumously published works helps to bring into view the stakes of different moments of writing It develops new terms for discussing literary self reflexivity derived from a reading of Don Quixote and its reception by J L Borges the self of writing and the public author as signature Across three comprehensive chapters Metafiction and Postwar Fiction shows how some of the most highly regarded postwar writers were motivated to incorporate reflexive elements into their writing and to what ends The first chapter on South African novelist J M Coetzee shows with a new clarity how his fictions drew from and relativized academic literary theory and the conditions of writing in apartheid South Africa The second chapter on New Zealand writer Janet Frame draws widely from her fictions autobiographies and posthumously published materials It demonstrates the terms in which her writing addresses a readership seemingly convinced that her work expressed the interior experience of madness The final chapter on American writer Philip Roth shows how his early reception led to his later and often explosive reconsiderations of identity and literary value in postwar America Janet Frame in Focus Josephine A. McQuail, 2018-01-26 New Zealand author Janet Frame 1924-2004 during her lifetime published 11 novels three collections of short stories a volume of poetry and a children's book The details of her life her tragic early years her confinement in a psychiatric hospital and her miraculous reprieve overshadow her work and she remains largely neglected by scholars These essays focus on Frame's autobiography short stories and novels Contributors from around the world explore a range of topics including her mother's Christadelphian faith her relationships with two 20th century icons William Theophilus Brown and John Money and a view of Frame in the context of trauma studies Two of the essays were presented at the 2014 Northeast Modern Language Association convention The Delivery Man Joe McGinniss, 2008-01-15 A gripping literary thriller and an auspicious debut set against the surreal excess of Las Vegas from the author of Carousel Court George Pelecanos author and award winning writer producer of The Wire After attending college in New York Chase returns to Vegas and is drawn into the lucrative but dangerous world of a teenage call girl service with his childhood friend Michele a beautiful Salvadoran immigrant with whom he shares a tragic past Over the course of one extraordinary summer they will confront the violence and emptiness at the heart of the city and their generation At once stark and electrically atmospheric horrifying and hopeful The Delivery Man is an ambitious literary novel as well as a fast and absorbing page turner and a powerful indictment of a society in which personal responsibility has been abandoned lust is increasingly mistaken for love and innocence is an anachronism A dead of night story surehandedly told in a pared down teeth bared style reminiscent of Joan Didion Janet Fitch New York Times bestselling author of White Oleander A brisk bleak debut novel offers unflinching glimpses at mores in free fall searing memorable not for the faint of heart The New York Times Book Review McGinniss offers a fresh take on the seamy side of Vegas by focusing on the wasted lives of burned out teens hooked on drugs and money USA Today It s sex drugs and a slew of lost souls engrossing Could The Delivery Man be this decade s Less Than Zero Marie Claire Grim convincing and compelling The Delivery Man really delivers The Washington Post Almost Heaven Marianne Wiggins,1999-12 Before his thirtieth birthday Holden Garfield has already burned out as a journalist in war torn Bosnia Returning to the United States he hopes the familiar sunshine and rolling hills of Virginia will help him put aside the horrors he reported Instead he finds Melanie his mentor s sister who is institutionalized with a mysterious amnesia after her husband and son were killed five weeks earlier by a freak force of nature Struck as if by lightning by her beauty Holden sets out to help her reconstruct her past and the pair is swept up in a passionate love affair one fighting to remember the other struggling to forget With this breakneck story of love and loss Marianne Wiggins delivers a compelling novel that is a series of powerful metaphors for the curative forces of love as well as her own personal love letter to the American South 1979
