Religion and Culture Annemarie De_Waal Malefijt, 1989 Religion and Anthropology Brian Morris, 2006 This important textbook provides a critical introduction to the social anthropology of religion focusing on more recent classical ethnographies Comprehensive free of scholastic jargon engaging and comparative in approach it covers all the major religious traditions that have been studied concretely by anthropologists Shamanism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity and its relation to African and Melanesian religions and contemporary Neopaganism Eschewing a thematic approach and treating religion as a social institution and not simply as an ideology or symbolic system the book follows the dual heritage of social anthropology in combining an interpretative understanding and sociological analysis The book will appeal to all students of anthropology whether established scholars or initiates to the discipline as well as to students of the social sciences and religious studies and for all those interested in comparative religion Anthropological Studies of Religion Brian Morris, 1987-02-27 A lucid outline of explanations of religious phenomena offered by such great thinkers as Hegel Marx and Weber

Anthropology of Religion Phillips Stevens, Denice J. Szafran, 2011 Religious belief is an extremely powerful motivator of human behaviour Religious considerations permeate and influence all parts of a culture Religious systems are universal in human cultures around the world and through all stages of human history and prehistory Of all academic approaches to religion the anthropological approach is the most comprehensive and the most useful to students of human belief and behaviour because it examines religion as a cultural system that cannot fully be understood separated from the other systems with which it interacts This new four volume collection from Routledge assembles exemplary scholarship in the field from its Victorian beginnings to the present and represents all generally accepted categories of religious belief and ritual plus some new ones Topics covered in this title include Early Explorations Symbols Supernatural Beings Magical Power and Forces Human Agents of Supernatural Danger Myth Ritual Religious Practitioners Women and Gender Belief Ecology Mind and Body Neurobiological Bases and Religion in Socio Cultural Change The first volume is prefaced with a general introduction newly written by the editor which outlines the history and salient aspects of the anthropological concern for religion and introduces the specific sections of the work Each thematic part also includes a short introduction to set the gathered materials in context Anthropology of Religion is destined to be valued by scholars students researchers and practitioners as an essential one stop reference The Beginnings of Religion E.O. James,2020-10-07 In this book first published in 1948 an attempt has been made to provide an intelligible introduction to a somewhat complex aspect of scientific inquiry And secondly to construct a background of primitive ritual and belief against which the more developed religions can be placed This book is a valuable early attempt at explaining the beginnings of religion from a modern scientific viewpoint Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite,2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph Politics of Religion/Religions of Politics Alistair Welchman,2014-10-20 The liberal enlightenment as well as the more radical left have both traditionally opposed religion as a reactionary force in politics a view culminating in an identification of the politics of religion as fundamentalist theocracy But recently a number of thinkers Agamben Badiou Tabues and in particular Simon Critchley have begun to explore a more productive engagement of the religious and the political in which religion features as a possible or even necessary form of human emancipation The papers in this collection deriving from a workshop held on and with Simon Critchley at the University of Texas at San Antonio in February 2010 take up the ways in which religion s encounter with politics transforms not only politics but also religion itself molding it into various religions of politics including not just heretical religious metaphysics but also what Critchley describes as non metaphysical religion the faith of the faithless Starting from Critchley s own genealogy of Pauline faith the articles in this collection explore and defend some of the religions of politics and their implications Costica Bradatan teases out the implications of Critchley s substitution of humor for tragedy as the vehicle for the minimal self distancing required for any politics Jill Stauffer compares Critchley s non metaphysical religiosity with Charles Taylor s account of Christianity Alistair Welchman unpacks the political theology of the border in terms of god s timeless act of creation Anne O Byrne explores the subtle dialectic between mores and morality in Rousseau s political ethics Roland Champagne sees a kind non metaphysical religion in Arendt s category of the political pariah Davide Panagia presents Critchley s ethics of exposure as the basis for a non metaphysical political bond Philip

Quadrio wonders about the political ramifications of Critchley's own mystical anarchism and Tina Chanter re-reads the primal site in the Western tradition at which the political and the religious intersect the Antigone story side-stepping philosophical interpretations of the story dominated by Hegel's reading by means of a series of post-colonial re-imaginings of the play The collection concludes with an interview with Simon Critchley taking up the themes of the workshop in the light of more recent political events the Arab Spring and the rise and fall of the Occupy movement Symbols for Communication

Jan Baal, W. E. A. van Beek, 1985 The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24 Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life Rituals are determinate in form but not static They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross-disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future
