Anthropology and Art Practice Arnd Schneider, Christopher Wright, 2013 Anthropology and Art Practice takes an innovative look at new experimental work informed by the newly reconfigured relationship between the arts and anthropology. This practice based and visual work can be characterised as art ethnography. In engaging with the concerns of both fields this cutting edge study tackles current issues such as the role of the artist in collaborative work and the political uses of documentary. The book focuses on key works from artists and anthropologists that engage with art ethnography and investigates the processes and strategies behind their creation and exhibition. The book highlights the work of a new generation of practitioners in this hybrid field such as Anthony Luvera Kathryn Ramey Brad Butler and Karen Mizra Kate Hennessy and Jennifer Deger who work in a diverse range of media including film photography sound and performance. Anthropology and Art Practice suggests a series of radical challenges to assumptions made on both sides of the art anthropology divide and is intended to inspire further dialogue and provide essential reading for a wide range of students and practitioners.
