A Jump For Life A Survivors Journal From Nazi Occupied Poland:

A Jump for Life Ruth Altbeker Cyprys, 1997 Ruth Altbeker Cyprys was a young Jewish lawyer who together with her child Eva survived WWII in the most extraordinary circumstances In this journal written immediately after the War and then hidden away for nearly 50 years Cyprys tells about the terrifying deportations that began in 1942 about her own incredible escape with her child from a deportation train en route to Treblinka and about their subsequent struggle to hide with the help of Christian Poles As gripping as a novel this memoir is not only a record of the horrors of the period but also the tale of a woman of phenomenal courage and tenacity

Plight and Fate of Women During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-07-05 The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or disdain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services

A Light in the Darkness Albert Marrin, 2019-09-10 From National Book Award Finalist Albert Marrin comes the moving story of Janusz Korczak the heroic Polish Jewish doctor who devoted his life to children perishing with them in the Holocaust Janusz Korczak was more than a good doctor He was a hero The Dr Spock of his day he established orphanages run on his principle of honoring children and shared his ideas with the public in books and on the radio He famously said that children are not the people of tomorrow but people today Korczak was a man ahead of his time whose work ultimately became the basis for the U N Declaration of the Rights of the Child Korczak was also a Polish Jew on the eve of World War II He turned down multiple opportunities for escape standing by the children in his orphanage as they became confined to the Warsaw Ghetto Dressing them in their Sabbath finest he led their march to the trains and ultimately perished with his children in Treblinka But this book is much more than a biography In it renowned nonfiction master Albert Marrin examines not just Janusz Korczak's life but his ideology of children that children are valuable in and of themselves as individuals He contrasts this with Adolf Hitler's life and his ideology of children that children are nothing more than tools of the state And throughout Marrin draws readers into the Warsaw Ghetto What it was like How it was run How Jews within and Poles without responded Who worked to save lives and who tried to enrich themselves on other people's suffering And how one man came to represent the conscience and the soul of humanity Filled with black and white photographs this is an unforgettable portrait of a man whose compassion in even the darkest hours reminds us what is possible Jump for Life

Ruth Altbeker Cyprys,1998-08-31 An unforgettable addition to his widely acclaimed body of work The Late Child is Larry McMurtry's tender funny and poignant sequel to The Desert Rose McMurtry delivers another rich cast of characters and a heartfelt bittersweet story that unfolds on the open road in one woman's search for strength understanding and hope Harmony is the optimistic resilient Las Vegas ex showgirl who returns home one day to the news that her beloved daughter has died in New York of AIDS She manages to stay afloat buoyed by her precocious five year old son Eddie and her two outspoken sisters as they set forth on a journey across the country seeking answers about her daughter's death From Nevada to New York to Oklahoma the eccentrics Harmony and her entourage meet nudge them closer to an inner peace with life and a way to find hope in the future Alive with inventive storytelling and honest emotion The Late Child is a warm enriching experience that celebrates the unique relationship between mother and child Jewish and Romani Families in the Holocaust and its Aftermath Eliyana R. Adler,Katerina Capková,2020-10-16 Diaries testimonies and memoirs of the Holocaust often include at least as much on the family as on the individual Victims of the Nazi regime experienced oppression and made decisions embedded within families Even after the war sole survivors often described their losses and rebuilt their lives with a distinct focus on family Yet this perspective is lacking in academic analyses In this work scholars from the United States Israel and across Europe bring a variety of backgrounds and disciplines to their study of the Holocaust and its aftermath from the family perspective Drawing on research from Belarus to Great Britain and examining both Jewish and Romani families they demonstrate the importance of recognizing how people continued to function within family units broadly defined throughout the war and afterward New Directions in Jewish American and Holocaust Literatures Victoria

Aarons,Holli Levitsky,2019-02-28 Surveys the current state of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures as well as approaches to teaching them What does it mean to read and to teach Jewish American and Holocaust literatures in the early decades of the twenty first century New directions and new forms of expression have emerged both in the invention of narratives and in the methodologies and discursive approaches taken toward these texts The premise of this book is that despite moving farther away in time the Holocaust continues to shape and inform contemporary Jewish American writing Divided into analytical and pedagogical sections the chapters present a range of possibilities for thinking about these literatures Contributors address such genres as biography the graphic novel alternate history midrash poetry and third generation and hidden child Holocaust narratives Both canonical and contemporary authors are covered including Michael

Chabon Nathan Englander Anne Frank Dara Horn Joe Kupert Philip Roth and William Styron The range of critical approaches and authors examined makes this a valuable resource for scholars and teachers Particularly in this troubling political moment meditations on the new and continued relevance of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures for scholars students and the American public in general are invaluable Sharon B Oster author of No Place in Time The Hebraic Myth in Late Nineteenth Century American Literature
