A History Of The Lewis And Clark Journals:

A History of the Lewis and Clark Journals Paul Russell Cutright, 2000-04-01 When President Thomas Jefferson dispatched Captains Meriwether Lewis and William Clark on their great exploratory expedition of the lands west of the Mississippi the journey was destined to become the most famous and significant American land expedition in history Jefferson must have realized the timeless importance of the mission for he urged the captains to keep multiple records of all they saw and experienced during the journey Those records dutifully kept from the departure of the expedition in 1803 to its conclusion in 1806 provided invaluable information about the wonders of the American West In the next 150 years the journals were published in several versions scrupulously authentic dubiously revised and complacently counterfeit This book is the first comprehensive account of the various versions and of the persons responsible for them It tells of the dedicated scholarship inspired judgment and exciting discovery of new materials as well as the misguided enthusiasm and journalistic skulduggery that marred the publishing history of the journals field notes and letters of members of the expedition The author breaks new ground in his use of previously unpublished letters written by the editors of the two major editions An appendix introduces a recently discovered manuscript version of the journal kept by one of the expedition members The book also includes an appraisal of books and articles written about the expedition and a resume of the illustrative materials sketches and maps that enriched the accounts A History of the Lewis and Clark Journals Paul Russell Cutright, 1976 Coverage of the diaries and journals of all members of the 1804 1806 Expedition

The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition: August 30, 1803-August 24, 1804 Meriwether Lewis, 1983-01-01 The journey of the Corps of Discovery under the command of Captains Meriwether Lewis and William Clark across the American West to the Pacific Ocean and back in the years 1804 1806 seems to me to have been our first really American adventure one that also produced our only really American epic The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition now at last available in a superbly edited easily read edition in twelve volumes of an eventual thirteen almost two centuries after the Corps of Discovery set out This important text has not been fully appreciated for what it is because of two centuries of incomplete and inadequate editing All three editions previous to this excellent one from the University of Nebraska were flawed by significant omission Thus my gratitude to the present editor Gary Moulton and his assistant editor Thomas Dunlay for bringing what I believe to be a national epic into plain view at last For almost two hundred years their Lewis and Clark s strong words waited there but not there printed but not read our silent epic But words can wait now the captains writings have at last spilled out and fully in this regal edition When the Atlas of the Lewis and Clark Expedition appeared in 1983 critics hailed it as a publishing landmark This eagerly awaited second volume of the new Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition begins the actual journals of those explorers whose epic expedition still enthalls Americans Instructed by President Jefferson to keep meticulous records bearing on the geography ethnology and natural history of the trans Mississippi West Meriwether Lewis and William Clark and four of their men filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations during their expedition of 1804-6. The result was in is a national treasure a complete look at the Great Plains the Rockies and the Pacific Northwest reported by men who were intelligent and well prepared at a time when almost nothing was known about those regions so newly acquired in the Louisiana Purchase. Volume 2 includes Lewis's and Clark's journals for the period from August 1803 when Lewis left Pittsburgh to join Clark farther down the Ohio River to August 1804 when the Corps of Discovery camped near the Vermillion River in present South Dakota. The general introduction by Gary E. Moulton discusses the history of the expedition the journal keeping methods of Lewis and Clark and the editing and publishing history of the journals from the time of Lewis and Clark's return. Superseding the last edition published early in this century the current edition brings together new materials discovered since then. It greatly expands and updates the annotation to take account of the most recent scholarship on the many subjects touched on by the journals.
