Giovanni Battista Guccia Benedetto Bongiorno, Guillermo P. Curbera, 2018-07-19 This book examines the life and work of mathematician Giovanni Battista Guccia founder of the Circolo Matematico di Palermo and its renowned journal the Rendiconti del Circolo matematico di Palermo The authors describe how Guccia an Italian geometer was able to establish a mathematical society in Sicily in the late nineteenth century which by 1914 would grow to become the largest and most international in the world with one of the most influential journals of the time The book highlights the challenges faced by Guccia in creating an international society in isolated Palermo and places Guccia's activities in the wider European context through comparisons with the formation of the London Mathematical Society and the creation of Mittag Leffler's Acta Mathematica in Stockholm Based on extensive searches in European archives this scholarly work follows both historical and scientific trends and will appeal to those interested in the history of mathematics and science in general The National Integration of Italian Return Migration, 1870-1929 Dino Cinel, 2002-08-22 This book examines return migration to Italy from the United States from 1870 to 1929 A large number of Italians did not intend to settle permanently in the United States Rather they emigrated temporarily to the United States to make money in order to buy land in Italy The book documents the flow back to Italy of individuals and remittances and discusses the strategies used by returnees in investing American savings

Past Vulnerability Felix Riede, 2015-12-31 Volcanic eruptions can affect everything nature wildlife people From the earliest times human resilience has been tested by this most severe environmental hazard resulting in a variety of collective responses from despair and helplessness to endurance increased worship of the gods and even mass migrations Past Vulnerability breaks new ground by examining the histories of extreme environmental events from the recent eruptions of Mount Merapi in Central Java to the prehistoric Toba supervolcanic eruption 74 000 years ago on the island of Sumatra Experts from a broad and unconventional range of disciplines from anthropology to literature studies and from archaeology to theology discuss the impacts of volcanic eruptions in human history and prehistory The book sets the scene for a palaeosocial volcanology that complements and extends current approaches to volcanic hazards in the natural and social sciences by presenting historically informed and evidence based analyses on how traditional societies dealt with these dangers or failed to do so
