A Long Way From Home:

A Long Way from Home Tom Brokaw, 2002-11-05 Reflections on America and the American experience as he has lived and observed it by the bestselling author of The Greatest Generation whose iconic career in journalism has spanned more than fifty years From his parents life in the Thirties on to his boyhood along the Missouri River and on the prairies of South Dakota in the Forties into his early journalism career in the Fifties and the tumultuous Sixties up to the present this personal story is a reflection on America in our time Tom Brokaw writes about growing up and coming of age in the heartland and of the family the people the culture and the values that shaped him then and still do today His father Red Brokaw a genius with machines followed the instincts of Tom's mother Jean and took the risk of moving his small family from an Army base to Pickstown South Dakota where Red got a job as a heavy equipment operator in the Army Corps of Engineers project building the Ft Randall dam along the Missouri River Tom Brokaw describes how this move became the pivotal decision in their lives as the Brokaw family along with others after World War II began to live out the American Dream community relative prosperity middle class pleasures and good educations for their children Along the river and in the surrounding hills I had a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw writes and as he describes his own pilgrimage as it unfolded from childhood to love marriage the early days in broadcast journalism and beyond he also reflects on what brought him and so many Americans of his generation to lead lives a long way from home yet forever affected by it Praise for A Long Way from Home A love letter to the people and places that enriched a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw has a knack for delivering quirky observations on small town life Bottom line Tom's terrific People Breezy and straightforward much like the assertive TV newsman himself Los Angeles Times Brokaw writes with disarming honesty The Atlanta Journal Constitution Brokaw evokes a sense of community a pride of citizenship and a confidence in American ideals that will impress his readers Richmond Times Dispatch

A Long Way from Home Alice Walsh, 2012-09-10 Thirteen year old Rabia along with her mother and younger brother flee Afghanistan and the brutal Taliban for Pakistan Some months later they take part in a program that is relocating refugee widows and orphans to America However their flight falls on the fateful morning of 9 11 After the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York City their plane is diverted to Gander Newfoundland Also on the plane is an American boy named Colin who struggles with his prejudices against Rabia and her family after they are all stuck in Gander while the air space is shut down The people in the small community including teens Jason and Leah open their hearts and their homes to the stranded passengers volunteering to billet the hundreds of unexpected visitors to the island Their kindness might be the bridge to understanding and acceptance that Colin and Rabia need

A Long Way from Home Claude McKay, 2007 McKay's account of his long odyssey from Jamaica to Harlem and then on to France Britain North Africa Russia and finally back to America As well as depicting his own experiences the author describes his encounters with such notable personalities as Charlie Chaplin George Bernard Shaw H G Wells Leon Trotsky W E B Du Bois Isadora Duncan Paul Robeson and Sinclair Lewis

way from home Emily Stickland, 2018-03-16 A family from 1800 s Famine Ireland and one from present day war torn Syria have to make a similar journey centuries apart from the homes they know and love to seek safety and security in other lands This is a universal story about the importance of welcoming and being understanding to refugees Though we may have different cultures we often share difficult histories

A Long Way from Home Peter Carey, 2018-02-27 Over the course of his stellar writing life Peter Carey has explored his homeland of Australia in such highly acclaimed novels as Oscar and Lucinda True History of the Kelly Gang and Amnesia Writing at the peak of his powers Carey takes us on an unforgettable journey that maps his homeland s secrets in this extraordinary new novel Wildly inventive funny and profoundly moving A Long Way from Home opens in 1953 with the arrival of the tiny handsome Titch Bobs his beautiful doll of a wife Irene and their two children in the small town of Bacchus Marsh Titch is the best car salesman in southeastern Australia Irene loves her husband and loves to drive fast Together they enter the Redex Trial a brutal endurance race around the ancient continent over roads no car is designed to survive With them is their neighbour and navigator Willie Bachhuber a quiz show champion and failed school teacher who calls the turns and creek crossings on a map that will lead them without warning away from the white Australia they all know so well Just like the novel Peter Carey s new masterpiece begins in one way and takes you somewhere you never thought you d be Often funny the book is also and always a page turner surprising you with history these characters never even knew themselves Its profound reckoning with Australia s brutal treatment of the continent s aboriginal people will also resonate strongly with Canadian readers

A Long Way from Home Pat Sandiford Grygier, 1997-03-27 A comprehensive account of the tuberculosis epidemic among the Inuit in the mid part of the century The Inuit were victims not only of the epidemic but also of the Canadian government s shockingly slow response and lack of concern for their culture Grygier s focus is on patients experiences and the programs set up to deal with the epidemic rather than on a purely medical discussion of the disease and treatment Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

A Long Way from Home Nigel Springthorpe, 2012-03-29 The year is 1955 A time when international travel is reserved for the privileged few Andy Marshall an 18 year old National Service conscript from Plymouth finds himself posted to the other side of the world Soon after his arrival at RAF Changi Singapore he is sent on detached duty to a staging post on a remote island in the South China Sea close to the mainland of Borneo His nine month tour of duty there is filled with a succession of bizarre experiences as he attempts to adjust to living and working with the 30 strong complement of Airmen led by an eccentric Station Commander Andy returns to Changi where his unusual exploits both on and off duty continue unabated Throughout his service in the Far East he is left to reflect on the wisdom of a last minute marriage proposal prior to his departure from England His two years of service for Queen and Country completed he returns home to re adjust to civilian life only to discover the lengthy period of separation from his fianc e has had a profound effect on their relationship Meanwhile his thoughts are filled with memories of his time overseas particularly the camaraderie amongst his fellow men A re union of former colleagues takes place but with surprising consequences A Long Way from Home is a work of fiction inspired by the author's personal experiences It paints a wickedly humorous and perceptive picture from an era when National Service was accepted almost without question Given the continuing debate of the desirability of re-introducing some form of compulsory military service this novel throws a light on how over half a century ago one young man coped a long way from home A Long Ways from Home Mike Martin, 2016-08-22 A weekend visit to picturesque Newfoundland by a large crew of outlaw bikers leaves behind another mess for Sgt Windflower to clean up This time he's facing violence murder mystery and intrigue This adventure has Windflower questioning everything he thought he knew There are troubles on the home front cutbacks in the policing budget old friends leaving and new ones not quite here yet Windflower is seeking to find answers in territory that is both dangerous and unfamiliar This instalment in the Sgt Windflower Mystery series has our hero dashing all over the beautiful little island of Newfoundland Along the way he never wavers in his pursuit of justice But he stills tries to find a way to enjoy the natural beauty that lays all around him and to bring out the best from everybody he meets A Long Ways from Home is about more than just homicides or the dirty dealings of outlaw bikers It is also about helping people and communities face up to and overcome new and very difficult challenges Windflower relies on his friends and allies including some four legged ones to help him and them find the answers He also discovers that we are never really alone even when we are a long ways from home A Long Way from Crenshaw James Darren Key, 2020-06-18 A Long Way from Crenshaw explores the vicissitudes of life as well as human resiliency and triumph Author and U S Army chaplain James Darren Key highlights forty lessons and stories from his journey which at times has given him incredible joy and on other occasions unavoidable pain and anguish Key speaks candidly about growing up black in California in the 1970s and 1980s By delving into his own weaknesses and fears he empowers you to recognize failures and successes along your journey approach race and diversity with sensitivity and courage heal from an unhealthy relationship before you start a new one face trials and controversy with unshakable faith Written in a conversational style Key's story is easily accessible to people from all walks of life His message is universal timely and inspirational Join the author as he shares compelling stories and lessons learned at home and abroad It's a Long Way from Llano James G. Teer, 2008-09-01 Wildlife management around the world has changed drastically in the last fifty years and veteran biologist James G Teer was a trailblazer for much of that time In this memoir he looks back on his life and on the transformation of his profession A pioneer in managing land for deer Teer became truly global in his conservation efforts From studying waterfowl in Manitoba and monitoring deer herds in the Texas Hill Country Teer was propelled into the world of big ranches and African safaris working for and traveling with Texas landowners while helping to build the reputation of the wildlife ecology program at Texas A M University As he reminisces Teer gives homage to the men who mentored and taught him and to those whose friendships lasted a lifetime He salutes his colleagues and his students and he confirms his lifelong commitment to the care and stewardship of animals everywhere
