Broadcast News Producing Brad Schultz, 2005 Broadcast News Producing is one of the first comprehensive texts in its field. While until now most broadcast journalism textbooks have been geared toward students who want careers on camera, Broadcast News Producing goes behind the camera to teach students the hows and whys of putting together compelling news programs for television, radio, and the Internet. This text lays the groundwork for good producing, giving the reader an insider's perspective on newsroom structure and the producer's role. It takes students step by step through the producing process, providing a guide to putting together a successful newscast.

Writing Broadcast News — Shorter, Sharper, Stronger Mervin Block, 2010-11-30 Mervin Block, who has written for the best in the business, offers timeless advice guiding both first year students and seasoned professionals through the essentials of writing for the ear. With countless scripts collected from writing workshops in newsrooms across the country, this resource is studded with insightful and at times entertaining comments, suggestions, and much needed corrections. Readers will find Block's clear and incisive voice coming through in the expanded Top Tips of the Trade and the Dozen Deadly Sins, reminding us that mistakes can be our best teachers.
