Between Earth And Paradise:

Between Earth and Heaven Dawn Langman, 2021-11-10 In this third volume in The Actor of the Future series Dawn Langman continues to explore the integration of Steiner's research into speech drama and eurythmy with Michael Chekhov's acting methodology Her advanced applications of all the basic processes allow the art of the actor and speaker to evolve beyond the soul and body paradigm still broadly accepted in contemporary culture to include dimensions of the spirit The book contains a seminal analysis of comedy and tragedy showing how an understanding of their esoteric roots sprung from the Eleusis mysteries of ancient Greece deepen our appreciation and our ability to implement the practical suggestions made by Steiner and Chekhov to differentiate the fundamental styles A comprehensive exploration of the vowels in relation to planetary beings lays the foundation for many layers of artistic deepening and application Dawn Langman gifts us with yet another magnificent contribution to her book series developing an integrated acting technique based on the indications of Rudolf Steiner and Michael Chekhov in which actors become the work of art Venturing even further into the deeper alchemical mysteries of the work Langman leads us into an imagination of future theatre that includes a genuine experience of the I AM the origin of comedy and tragedy Dante's Paradiso as example of how we can experience the planetary spheres in word and gesture and much more inspiring the unfoldment of actors of the future Dr Jane Gilmer actress and teacher author of The Alchemical Actor 2021 and former Assistant Professor of Drama VPA National Institute of Education Singapore In this present volume Dawn Langman continues her in depth exploration of the integration of Michael Chekhov's system of psycho physical awareness with Rudolf Steiner's indications for creative speech and eurythmy In so doing she genuinely models both teachers emphasis on experimentation and exploration absent the dogmatism sometimes associated with such work The careful conscious communication of her own advanced exercises created to develop this new methodology will be most effective when worked in conjunction with her previous books The Art of Acting The Art of Speech and The Actor of the Future Vols 1 2 Taken as a whole Langman reveals the degree of empathy and responsiveness possible not only between human beings but with all the manifold community of beings between earth and heaven Dr Diane Carracciolo Associate Professor of Educational Theatre Adelphi University USA

Between Earth and Empire John P. Clark, 2019-07-01 Between Earth and Empire focuses on the crucial position of humanity at the present moment in Earth history We are now in the midst of the Necrocene an epoch of death and mass extinction Nearing the end of the long history of Empire and domination we are faced with the choice of either continuing the path of social and ecological disintegration or initiating a new era of social and ecological regeneration The book shows that conventional approaches to global crisis on both the right and the left have succumbed to processes of denial and disavowal either rejecting the reality of crisis entirely or substituting ineffectual but comforting gestures and images for deep systemic social transformation It is argued that a large scale social and ecological regeneration must be rooted in communities of liberation and solidarity fostering personal and group transformation so that a culture of awakening and care can emerge Between Earth and Empire explores examples of significant progress in this direction including the Zapatista movement in Chiapas the Democratic Autonomy Movement in Rojava indigenous movements in defense of the commons the solidarity economy movement and efforts to create liberated base communities and affinity groups within anarchism and other radical social movements In the end the book presents a vision of hope for social and ecological regeneration through the rebirth of a libertarian and communitarian social imaginary and the flourishing of a free cooperative community globally

Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson,2021-01-01

By the mid second century Christian writers were engaging in debates with educated audiences from non Jewish Graeco Roman cultural backgrounds A remarkable feature of some of these texts is how extensively they refer to the Jewish scriptures even though those scriptures were unfamiliar to non Jewish Graeco Romans In Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson explores for the first time why this should have been so As the basis for his argument Hudson examines three works by Christian converts originally educated in Graeco Roman traditions Justin Martyr s First Apology Tatian s Oratio and Theophilus of Antioch s Ad Autolyicum He considers their literary strategies their use of quotations and allusions and how they present the Jewish scriptures all against the background of the Graeco Roman literary culture familiar to both authors and audiences The scriptures are presented as a critically defining feature of Christianity instrumental in shaping the way the new religion presented itself as it strove to engage with and challenge the cultural traditions of the Graeco Roman world This book will engage scholars interested in the very earliest centuries of Christianity and in the central role the Jewish scriptures played in the new religion s self presentation

Creation, Nature and Hope in 4 Ezra Jonathan A. Moo,2011-05-18

This exegetical study of creation and nature in 4 Ezra argues that this first century Jewish apocalypse s profound pessimism concerning humankind and the present age is matched by a surprisingly robust belief in the goodness of the created order 4 Ezra presents the natural world as standing with God over and against corrupt humankind envisions substantial elements of continuity between the ages and hints that those parts of the earth that remain unsullied by humankind still witness to God s sovereignty love and justice and even serve as material pointers to the new creation This study calls into question the persistent assumption that apocalypticism and the apocalyptic eschatology of the historical apocalypses in particular necessarily entails a profound dualism Emerging as it does from an experience of historical disaster and unresolved questions of theodicy 4 Ezra especially is often considered an apocalypse in which the doctrine of the two ages has been radicalised to the extent that creation history and life in this world have lost their meaning or significance The results of this study however indicate that while 4 Ezra considers the world of humankind to be corrupted and corrupting in the natural world the creator s sovereignty is not so obscured and there his original intentions for creation can still be perceived This study provides a fresh reading of 4 Ezra that takes seriously the book s unity and coherence Its conclusions suggest that it may be best to abandon the label apocalyptic eschatology given its potential mask the interesting complexities and mix of continuity and discontinuity that attend the portrayal of creation nature and hope in an apocalypse like 4 Ezra

Migrants of Identity Andrew Dawson,Nigel Rapport,2021-01-07

Global movement is commonly characterized as one of the quintessential experiences of our age Market forces territorial conflicts and environmental changes uproot an increasing number of people while mass communication travel tourism and a global market of commodities texts tastes fashions and ideologies place individuals more than ever in a global arena As traditional conceptions of individuals as members of stationary fixed and separate societies and cultures no longer convince to what extent does movement become central to individuals self conceptions How do people cultivate negotiate nurture and maintain an identity To what extent do individuals become migrants of identity whose home is movement Defining home as where one best knows oneself this pioneering book explores the various ways in which people perceive themselves to be at home in today s world Through a series of case studies authors show that for a world of travellers labour migrants exiles and commuters home comes to be found in behavioural routines and techniques in styles of dress and address in memories myths and stories in jokes and opinions In short people who live their lives in movement make sense of their lives as movement
