

Local Government Act (2000) (LGA)

The main power specific to Local Authorities is section 2 LGA (2000) – the power of well-being. This enables Local Authorities to do anything to promote social, economic, or social well-being in their area provided the act is not specifically forbidden by other statute.

In addition S111 LGA (1972) enables Local Authorities to do anything conducive or incidental to the discharge of any of its functions, providing it has specific statutory authority to carry out those main functions in the first place.

These are general powers for Local Authorities, but if there are statutory powers relating to specific activities these should be referred to in Information Sharing Agreements.
