Modern Paleopathology, The Study of Diagnostic Approach to Ancient Diseases, their Pathology and Epidemiology Bruce M. Rothschild, Dawid Surmik, Filippo Bertozzo, 2023-09-27 The study of paleopathology has two very different constituencies the medical scientist and the zoologist paleontologist anthropologist Their investigative procedures and professional jargon are different sometimes to the point of mutual incomprehensibility Paleontologists anthropologists zoologists have a limited data base for the characterization and interpretation of pathology This must come from the human and veterinary medical experience What beyond intellectual satisfaction can the health care community expect from this relationship The past history of the appearance and dispersal of infectious disease and cancer is of considerable theoretical importance and leads to new insights on the nature and transmission of diseases that are otherwise ambiguous The discovery of rheumatoid arthritis in pre Columbian North America exemplifies insights gained The current effort delineates osseous impact of disease as manifest in clinical populations diagnosed in life representation in the zoologic paleontologic and anthropologic record and assessment techniques that can be confidently applied The chapters form columns that provide the foundation for scientific critical thinking The actual integration of the information is in its application Our purpose is to provide a data base and atlas of actually documented skeletal impact of diseases as population phenomenon an initial data base of reported skeletal pathology and a methodology for expanding this to new arenas The first section of the book examines the scientific basis of paleopathology its transition from speculation based musings resolution of misconceptions and the denouement of paleo epidemiology The second section provides holistic analysis of the gamut of pathology diseases with significant skeletal impact with a validated archeologic zoological paleontological record The third section provides a glossary to resolve the semantic challenges inherent to interdisciplinary efforts The fourth section provides an atlas of pathology representation in the fossil record Ultimately this book intends to present a scientifically validated approach to recognition of disease in the archeological zoological and paleontological record superseding previous speculation based offerings

Constitution Making Under Occupation Andrew Arato,2009-03-13 The attempt in 2004 to draft an interim constitution in Iraq and the effort to enact a permanent one in 2005 were unintended outcomes of the American occupation which first sought to impose a constitution by its agents This two stage constitution making paradigm implemented in a wholly unplanned move by the Iraqis and their American sponsors formed a kind of compromise between the populist democratic project of Shi ite clerics and America s external interference As long as it was used in a coherent and legitimate way the method held promise Unfortunately the logic of external imposition and political exclusion compromised the negotiations Andrew Arato is the first person to record this historic process and analyze its special problems He compares the drafting of the Iraqi constitution to similar externally imposed constitutional revolutions by the United States especially in Japan and Germany and identifies the political missteps that contributed to problems of learning and legitimacy Instead of claiming that the right model of constitution making would have maintained stability in Iraq Arato focuses on the fragile opportunity for democratization that was strengthened only slightly by the methods used to draft a constitution Arato contends that this event would have benefited greatly from an overall framework of internationalization and he argues that a better set of guidelines rather than the obsolete Hague and Geneva regulations should be followed in the future With access to an extensive body of literature Arato highlights the difficulty of exporting democracy to a country that opposes all such foreign designs and fundamentally disagrees on matters of political identity
