Adult Education and Social Justice: International Perspectives Maria Slowey, Heribert Hinzen, Michael Abiola Omolewa, Michael Osborne, 2023-12-21 This book investigates the ways in which the social purposes of adult education are reinterpreted over time and between the global south and global north. It brings together thirty-seven authors from fourteen countries with extensive experience as academics and/or practitioners in the field. The book is inspired by the work and life of Lalage Bown, a leading proponent of postcolonial and inclusive visions of education for all. Over her long life, she worked tirelessly to promote access to basic and higher education for people of all ages and backgrounds with a deep commitment to striving for greater equality for women. Following an Introduction, the book is structured around four main themes: Adult Education and Social Justice; Decolonisation; Postcolonialism and Indigenous Knowledge; From Literacy to Lifelong Learning; and Fostering Excellence. Policy Development and Supporting Future Generation of Adult Educators. The book concludes with reflections on Lalage Bown's Enduring Legacy. Adult Education Through World Collaboration Beverly Benner Cassara, 1995 Over the last few decades, hundreds of multinational agencies have stepped in to offer financial and technical resources for adult education in developing countries. This text compiles and organises information about the wide range of programmes, methods, needs, and sources worldwide. The Profession and Practice of Adult Education Sharan B. Merriam, Ralph G. Brckett, 2011-02-17 The Profession and Practice of Adult Education is a timely book and an excellent introduction to the field. Drawing from an extensive volume of literature, it provides comprehensive coverage and a clear guide. Graduate students will benefit from it, and practitioners will be kept abreast of changes that are occurring. Peter Jarvis, professor of continuing education and senior research professor, University of Surrey, United Kingdom. Adult Learning Through Collaborative Leadership Catherine Etmanski, Kathy Bishop, M. Beth Page, 2018-01-15 By attending to the adult learning that takes place through more collaborative approaches to leadership, this volume draws upon scholars who understand leadership as more participatory, transformative, generative, and democratic. Looking beyond position-based individual leadership, it captures how adults learn through the diverse actions, processes, and strategies collaborative leaders employ to bring about change. Drawing from scholarship and practice, this sourcebook weaves theory with the authors' experiences by showcasing real-life examples of collaborative leadership in a variety of contexts, including community, healthcare, secondary, and post-secondary education. It also provides a range of creative strategies such as playbuilding, coaching, fostering global partnerships, and ensemble leadership, as well as indigenous and feminist perspectives on leadership. This sourcebook will support adult educators seeking to promote learning through more collaborative approaches to leadership and engagement in a variety of settings. Readers will benefit by deepening their understanding of how leadership is not only enacted among individuals but how it is also expressed in collective ways of thinking, doing, being, knowing, and learning. Non-Formal Education Alan Rogers, 2007-03-06 The Comparative Education Research Centre CERC at the University of Hong Kong is proud and privileged to present this book in its series CERC Studies in Comparative Education Alan Rogers is a distinguished figure in the field of non formal education and brings to this volume more than three decades of experience The book is a masterly account which will be seen as a milestone in the literature It is based on the one hand on an exhaustive review of the literature and on the other hand on extensive practical experience in all parts of the world It is a truly comparative work which fits admirably into the series Much of the thrust of Rogers work is an analysis not only of the significance of non formal education but also of the reasons for changing fashions in the development community Confronting a major question at the outset Rogers ask why the terminology of non formal education which was so much in vogue in the 1970s and 1980s practically disappeared from the mainstream discourse in the 1990s and initial years of the present century Much of the book is therefore about paradigms in the domain of development studies and about the ways that fashions may gloss over substance

Adult Education and Lifelong Learning Peter Jarvis, 2024-11-22 Adult Education and Lifelong Learning is regarded as one of the most widely used textbooks about adult education Now part of the Routledge Education Classic Edition series this key title combines the practical and philosophical to cover all areas related to the topic including how we understand people as learners how to teach adults curriculum planning distance education and assessment It doesn't shy away from complexity and asks difficult questions to provoke the reader into thinking about what lifelong learning really means Not your basic how to book it combines practice with theory and points the way to further studies and engagement in the field With a new introduction by Professor Sam Duncan to contextualise the work this is a must read text for all education students as well as practitioners and researchers in adult education and lifelong learning
