Adult Education At The Crossroads Learning Our Way Out:

Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger, Jose Manuel Asun, 2001 Adopting a social action perspective this book is an assessment of where adult education now stands in the world It argues that the purposes and rationale of adult education need to be reconceptualised for it to become an effective agent of change Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger, Jose Manuel Asun, 2001-01-26 This is a pithy assessment of where adult education now stands the traditions out of which it came its current problems and possible futures The authors are particularly concerned with how its longstanding commitment to deliver social change ran into difficulties in the less favourable circumstances of the 1980s and 1990s They argue that its purposes now need to be reconceptualized in order for it to become once again a relevant and effective agent of change The authors remind adult educationists of their traditional commitment to social action by surveying the ideas of seminal adult education thinkers as they developed historically in Europe North America and later the Third World They show how today's very different context has eroded that original vision and purpose The book concludes by identifying four possible future scenarios the challenges confronting an adult education still committed to social change and the key features which they believe can contribute to learning our way out of the current impasse Robert Grosseteste and Theories of Education Jack P. Cunningham, Steven Puttick, 2019-12-06 This book examines Robert Grosseteste's often underrepresented ideas on education It uniquely brings together academics from the fields of medieval history modern science and contemporary education to shed new light on a fascinating medieval figure whose work has an enormous amount to offer anyone with an interest in our educational processes The book locates Grosseteste as a key figure in the intellectual history of medieval Europe and positions him as an important thinker who concerned himself with the science of education and set out to elucidate the processes and purposes of learning This book offers an important practical contribution to the discussion of the contemporary nature and purpose of many aspects of our education processes This book will be of interest to students researchers and academics in the disciplines of educational philosophy medieval history philosophy and theology

Complexity Theory and the Politics of Education, 2010-01-01 Complexity theory has become a major influence in discussions about the theory and practice of education This book focuses on a question which so far has received relatively little attention in such discussions which is the question of the politics of complexity The chapters in this book engage with this question in a range of different ways Whereas some contributions make a case for the promotion of complexity in education others focus more explicitly on questions concerning the reduction of complexity in and through education The chapters do so using theoretical historical and empirical arguments paying attention to a range of different educational settings including early childhood education school education post compulsory education lifelong learning and work based education and focusing on different aspects of these practices such as curriculum pedagogy assessment architecture and management Taken together the chapters not only reveal the potential of complexity for engaging with questions about the politics of education in new and different ways They also provide examples of a more reflexive engagement with the politics of complexity in education itself

Higher education in a globalising world Peter Mayo, 2019-07-04 This book focuses on current policy discourse in Higher Education with special reference to Europe It discusses globalisation Lifelong Learning the EU s Higher Education discourse this discourse s regional ramifications and alternative practices in Higher Education from both the minority and majority worlds with their different learning traditions and epistemologies It argues that these alternative practices could well provide the germs for the shape of a public good oriented Higher Education for the future It theoretically expounds on important elements to consider when engaging Higher Education and communities discussing the nature of the term community itself Special reference is accorded to the difference that lies at the core of these ever changing communities It then provides an analysis of an on the ground project in University community engagement before suggesting signposts for further action at the level of policy and provision

Teaching for Global Community César Augusto Rossatto, 2011-06-01 Education has long been viewed as a vehicle for building community However the critical role of education and schools for constructing community resistance is undermined by recent trends toward the centralization of educational policy making e g racial profiling new laws in the US Arizona and Texas No Child Left Behind and global racism the normalization of globalization as a vehicle for the advancement of economic neo liberalism and social hegemony and the commodification of schooling in the service of corporate capitalism Alternative visions of schooling are urgently needed to transform these dangerous trends so as to reconstruct public education as an emancipatory social project Teaching for Global Community Overcoming the Divide and Conquer Strategies of the Oppressor examines these issues among related others as a way to honor and re examine Freirean principles and aim to take critical pedagogy in new directions for a new generation The goal is to build upon past accomplishments of Paulo Freire s work and critical pedagogy while moving beyond its historical limitations This includes efforts that revisit and re evaluate established topics in the field or take on new areas of contestation Issues related to education labor and emancipation broadly defined and from diverse geographical context are addressed The theoretical perspectives used to look at these emerge from critical pedagogy critical race theory critiques of globalization and neoliberalism marxist and neo marxist perspectives social constructivism comparative international education postmodernism indigenous perspectives feminist theory queer theory poststructuralism critical environmental studies postcolonial studies liberation theology with a deep commitment to social justice

Learning for sustainability in times of accelerating change Arjen E.J. Wals, Peter Blaze Corcoran, 2023-09-04 We live in turbulent times our world is changing at accelerating speed Information is everywhere but wisdom appears in short supply when trying to address key inter related challenges of our time such as runaway climate change the loss of biodiversity the depletion of natural resources the on going homogenization of culture and rising inequity Living in such times has implications for education and learning This book explores the possibilities of designing and facilitating learning based change and transitions towards sustainability In 31 chapters contributors from across the world discuss re emerging forms of learning that not only assist in breaking down unsustainable routines forms of governance production and consumption but also can help create ones that are more sustainable The book has been divided into three parts re orienting science and society re connecting people and planet and re imagining education and learning This is essential reading for educators educational designers change agents researchers students policymakers and entrepreneurs alike who are concerned about the well being of the planet and convinced of our ability to do better The content and related issues can be discussed on the blog by editor Arjen Wals Transformative learning We are living in times of incertitude complexity and contestation but also of connectivity responsibility and new opportunities This book analyses the consequences of these times for learning in formal non formal and informal education It explores the possibilities offered by the concept of sustainability as a central category of a holistic paradigm which harmonizes human beings with Earth To change people and to change the world are interdependent processes this book contributes to both Moacir Gadotti Director of Paulo Freire Institute S o Paulo Brazil I hope you share my excitement about the innovations for sustainability that this book catalogues and analyses While the ecological news is grim the human news is not Even in a time of accelerating change people are showing their enormous capacities to learn adapt restore and protect From the Foreword by Juliet Schor author of True Wealth how and why millions of Americans are creating a time rich ecologically light small scale high satisfaction economy This book implies a culture of critical commitment in educational thinking and practice engaged enough to make a real difference to social ecological resilience and sustainability but reflexively critical enough to learn constantly from experience and to keep options open in working for a sustainability transformation From the Afterword by Stephen Sterling Professor of Sustainability Education Centre for Sustainable Futures Plymouth University United Kingdom Information Technology and Constructivism in Higher Education: Progressive Learning Frameworks Payne, Carla R., 2009-05-31 This volume is grounded in the thesis that information technology may offer the only viable avenue to the implementation of constructivist and progressive educational principles in higher education and that the numerous efforts now under way to realize these principles deserve examination and evaluation Provided by publisher

Embracing the Beat of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within Adult Education At The Crobroads Learning Our Way Out

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the published word often fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Adult Education At The Crobroads Learning Our Way Out a stunning literary prize filled with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the touching assessment, we will investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
