contemporary theological and missiological questions A God of Many Understandings Todd Miles, 2010-10-01 Western Christianity's interaction with world religions used to be for the most part overseas Today religious others often live next door At a changing time when one public prayer spoken during the 2009 U S presidential inauguration festivities was addressed to O god of our many understandings the evangelical Christian church should do more than simply dismiss non Christian religions as pagan without argument or comment The Church needs a theology of religions that is Christ honoring biblically faithful intellectually satisfying compassionate and that will encourage Spirit powered mission Oregon based theology professor Todd L Miles writes to that end in A God of Many Understandings attempting as the scholar Veli Matti K rkk inen puts it to think theologically about what it means for Christians to live with people of other faiths and about the relationship of Christianity to other religions 'For Their Rock is not as Our Rock' Daniel Strange, 2015-05-08 The reality of our post Christendom post colonial post Holocaust post 9 11 multi ethnic and multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians are acutely aware of the questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is still alive and well then seemingly so too is society's sacralization Hence the theology of religions is arguably the issue for mission in the twenty first century However there has been little evangelical theology that offers a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis that deals with not only the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of practical issues pertaining to apologetics and contextualization In this ambitious interdisciplinary study which synthesizes close exegesis biblical theology systematics and insights from the social sciences Daniel Strange examines the origins development and idolatry of the religious Other and explores how the gospel of Jesus Christ is its subversive fulfilment He concludes with a missiological postscript and some pastoral perspectives on the purpose of other religions in God's providence
