

Future of Work Trends for 2024

Self-Service Intelligent Work Support

By 2024, AI will serve as an enabling force for workers, significantly increasing efficiency and job satisfaction as AI takes over routine and repetitive tasks, freeing up workers to focus on more strategic and creative responsibilities.

Breakthroughs in Work Transformation

Orgs will use the maturing of new democratized automation tools to enable workers to automate and AI-manage business operations to enhance efficiency, reduce errors, and unleash higher order thinking.

Achieving Broad Success with Distributed Work

In 2024, orgs will continue to refine and adjust hybrid work models and culture, leveraging tech, lessons learned, and feedback to balance and optimize work from anywhere for productivity and well-being.

Customer and Employee Experience Connect Better

The realms of customer experience and employee experience will continue to overlap. Orgs will preemptively manage both, recognizing that enhanced employee engagement directly translates into improved customer satisfaction and loyalty.

A More Effective and Connected Digital Workplace

Orgs will push to close the gap in providing a coherent, integrated, and optimized DEX. Leveraging AI, analytics, and design, they'll create ever-more personalized, seamless, and usable interfaces for work processes.

Helping Workers Get the Most from IT and Themselves

Onboarding and digital adoption are emerging as critical components of the digital employee experience, fostering swift integration and proficient use of digital tools, thereby driving engagement, productivity, and job satisfaction.

Designer Professions and Crowdstaffed Projects

Both careers and work will evolve to be more gig-centric, marketplace-based, and on-demand. Despite this shift, workers will retain substantial control, selecting tasks that align with their skills, interests, and work-life balance.

Gain Benefit from Differences and Worker Preferences

Workplaces will span broader human and technology dimensions, accommodating both hybrid workers and individuals from diverse backgrounds, fostering more dynamic, innovative, and representative teams.

Shaping the Future of Work Thomas Kochan, Lee Dyer, 2020-11-24 This book provides a clear roadmap for the roles workers and leaders in business labor education and government must play in building a new social contract for all to prosper It is a call to action for a collaborative effort to develop both high quality jobs and strong successful businesses while simultaneously overcoming the deep social and economic divisions that are all too apparent in society today Written by two leading and trusted experts in the field of employment and work from MIT and Cornell University this book is a practical action oriented guide Readers will feel empowered to take actions needed to shape a better future of work for themselves their employees their co workers and others they may represent It emphasizes the need to fix America's broken social contract and reimagine a new one The most important message of this book is that we have the ability to shape the work of the future by harnessing the power of new technologies The book is essential reading for business executives labor leaders and workforce advocates government policy makers politicians and anyone who is interested in using emerging knowledge and technologies to drive innovation creating high quality jobs and shaping a more broadly shared prosperity

Youth Employment and the Future of Work Council of Europe, Jonathan Evans, Wei Shen, 2010-01-01 Young people are particularly vulnerable to fluctuations in economic trends Youth employment is therefore high on the policy agenda of those concerned with promoting social inclusion While youth targeted employment policies tend to combine both demand side and supply side approaches it is important to recognise that traditional notions of work have more recently been challenged and reconceptualised The old assumptions about gender roles job security and planned careers have thus been transformed by the profound economic and social changes of recent decades The essays collected here were developed from papers first delivered at a research seminar on youth employment organised by the partnership between the Council of Europe and the European Commission in the field of youth They represent a diverse and at times provocative collection of analytic snapshots of the position of young people on the European labour market What emerges is a shared commitment to finding flexible responses to economic globalisation and a concomitant concern for promoting the rights interests and welfare of young people in both training placement and in the workplace P 4 of cover
