Aids And Men Taking Risks Or Taking Responsibility:

AIDS and Men Martin Foreman, 1999 The global AIDS epidemic is driven by men Men have more opportunity to contract and transmit HIV men usually determine the circumstances of intercourse and men often refuse to protect themselves and their partners Even if no more than one in four men endangers themselves and their female or male partners this represents hundreds of millions of men whom is appears regularly act without thought for their partners Can men be persuaded to change their behaviour How do concepts of masculinity affect risks and responsibilities in relation to the epidemic The first section of this book examines the relationship between men s actions and AIDS world wide the impact of those actions on men and women and initiatives designed to help men protect themselves and their partners The second section written by journalists from eleven countries in the Americas Africa Asia and Eastern Europe illustrates many different aspects of that relationship from machismo in Mexico to drug injection in Russia from men in prison in Brazil to men living with HIV in Thailand from men as fathers in the Ivory Coast to men who have sex with men in Kenya Men undoubtedly take risks in relation to HIV Whether or not they should also take responsibility for transmission of the virus and how they can do so are questions that cannot be easily resolved This book provides some insights that allow a greater understanding of the issue

Socio-political and Psychological Perspectives on South Africa Christopher R. Stones, 2001 South Africa is a society that sadly has been divided against itself even at the best of times Beginning with the initial advent of colonialism on the southern tip of the African continent through to the later spawning of apartheid as well as in its nascent democracy divisions have continually been manifest in varying form and content along racial ethnic class religious language political or other socio economic and cultural lines Unlike most societies South Africa is a natural laboratory for psycho social research yet it has been foreign researchers who have conducted most of the behavioural studies on the human condition in the country South African psychologists seem to have steered clear of involvement in researching any major policy impact especially in recent times when the re shaping of South African society has been at its height Each of the authors in this book is South African and appropriately has lived through the transition in South Africa and has attempted to understand the changes at both professional and personal levels The contributors were each asked to write a chapter that would explore the South African socio political terrain from within their fields of expertise and so help others navigate the uncharted future with less trepidation

AIDS Sexuality and Gender in Africa Carolyn Baylies, Janet Bujra, 2002-09-11 This book draws on first hand research and in depth investigations carried out by a team of researchers They study the severity of the AIDS epidemic and the threat it poses to the population and society in Tanzania and Zambia

Boys to Men in the Shadow of AIDS A. Simpson, 2009-04-26 This ethnography charts the lives of mission educated men in Zambia and their search for meaning in the AIDS pandemic as well as their responses to prevention and HIV testing It also suggests how hegemonic masculinities may begin to be re figured and gender relationships redesigned

AIDS and Masculinity in the African City Robert

Wyrod,2016-07-05 AIDS has been a devastating plague in much of sub Saharan Africa yet the long term implications for gender and sexuality are just emerging AIDS and Masculinity in the African City tackles this issue head on and examines how AIDS has altered the ways masculinity is lived in Uganda a country known as Africa s great AIDS success story Based on a decade of ethnographic research in an urban slum community in the capital Kampala this book reveals the persistence of masculine privilege in the age of AIDS and the implications such privilege has for combating AIDS across the African continent

Ritual and Event Mark Franko,2006-10-19 Ritual today can be encountered in the midst of catastrophic and transforming events This collection reassesses and revises traditionally understood relationships between ritual and politics ritual and everyday life ritual and art making and ritual and disaster The methodologies as well as the subject matter are interdisciplinary they range from the anthropological to the art and dance historical from the theatrical and literary to the linguistic philosophical and psychoanalytic It will be a valuable tool for scholars of Theater and Performance Studies as well as Anthropology Art and History Challenges and Change in Middle America Katie Willis, Cathy McIlwaine, 2014-09-25 A comprehensive introduction to the important economic social and political processes and development issues in this extremely popular region The Central American nations and those of the Caribbean including Guyana Surinam and French Guiana on the mainland share many historical processes as well as experiencing similar development problems today These include European colonialism structural adjustment small size reliance on primary production influence of the United States and moves towards democratisation While Mexico is obviously a much larger country in area economy and population terms it is included in this volume because of its close ties to the other countries in the region through processes such as trade and migration Handbook on International Political Economy Ralph Pettman, 2012 International political economy IPE is a highly complex discipline drawing not only from the fields of politics and economics but also those as varied as philosophy history and anthropology Now widely accepted as a key dimension to contemporary world affairs it is no longer possible to talk about international relations without talking about production and distribution finance and investment as well as consumption and trade To ensure that our understanding of these topics is relevant to today's world there is a constant need to revisit and challenge what is known about these topics Besides being a comprehensive account of international political economy for academic study this extensive collection also highlights salient issues that scholars analysts and state leaders are most concerned with in today's world Amongst these are issues concerning the rise of China and India as new economic superpowers stability in the EU's political economy the viability of the existing multilateral system of global trade recent financial crises as well as the impact of globalisation and marketisation on the world's workers and our physical environment With contributions from prominent academics such as Susan K Sell George Washington University D C and Geoffrey Blainey Professor Emeritus University of Melbourne this volume makes for both a stimulating and thought provoking read The Other Half of Gender Ian Bannon, Maria Correia, 2006-01-01 This book is an attempt to bring the gender and development debate full circle from a much needed focus on empowering women to a more comprehensive gender framework that considers gender as a system that affects both women and men The chapters in this book explore definitions of masculinity and male identities in a variety of social contexts drawing from experiences in Latin America the Caribbean and sub Saharan Africa It draws on a slowly emerging realization that attaining the vision of gender equality will be difficult if not impossible without changing the ways in which masculinities are defined and acted upon Although changing male gender norms will be a difficult and slow process we must begin by understanding how versions of masculinities are defined and acted upon
