This Ain't No Lie Jackie S. Fisher, 2024-01-15 About the Book Jackie S Fisher shares the story of her husband Carrol Lee Fisher During his lifetime he endured many sorts of bad experiences and went through many sufferings However during life s different hardships Lee Fisher always kept his faith and was an inspiration to many others His life story is sure to encourage and inspire others About the Author Jackie S Fisher is a former member of the Burlington Artists League and the BAL Gallery She loves animals and owns many herself During her spare time when she is not involved in the Seventh Day Adventist Church Fisher likes to read sew and drive her 1949 Hudson Super Six Ain't No Hurt Like a Church Hurt but God Can Heal the Wounds Evangelist Dr. Diane Hart, 2010-12-27 Have you ever been hurt in church Have you ever found yourself weeping and wailing to the Lord Why me Have you ever cried yourself to sleep while trying to pray because of church hurts Are church hurts real Can they possibly come via true saints of God Will they knock you to your knees YES to all of the above Over my 55 years in church I have been through it all the good the bad and the ugly All of the accounts in this book are first hand I have been at peoples deathbeds as they reminisced about being hurt by leaders or so called saints I know people who have given their last believing their leader was giving a word from the Lord yet they ended up losing in the end Whereas some of the most influential people have professed to be one thing in public behind the scenes they are another and it has caused hurt among Gods people I am sharing some of these hurts so that Gods people can know that even though there is hurt in church there is healing and you can move past it It will come only through the word of God There Ain't No Mean In Me, Except a Pinch of Naughty Allegra Gianelli, Ain't No Makin' It Jay MacLeod, 2018-03-09 This classic text addresses one of the most important issues in modern social theory and policy how social inequality is reproduced from one generation to the next With the original 1987 publication of Ain t No Makin It Jay MacLeod brought us to the Clarendon Heights housing project where we met the Brothers and the Hallway Hangers Their story of poverty race and defeatism moved readers and challenged ethnic stereotypes MacLeod s return eight years later and the resulting 1995 revision revealed little improvement in the lives of these men as they struggled in the labor market and crime ridden underground economy The third edition of this classic ethnography of social reproduction brings the story of inequality and social mobility into today s dialogue Now fully updated with thirteen new interviews from the original Hallway Hangers and Brothers as well as new theoretical analysis and comparison to the original conclusions Ain t No Makin It remains an admired and invaluable text Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Ain't No Mountain High Enough Hanneke Boot, 2020-01-30 When she is eighteen Hanneke Boot discovers that painting with her mouth is easier for her than painting with her hands Born with a muscle disease she s experienced a host of challenges But she s found her calling in art and paints everything views landscapes mills and portraits In Ain t No Mountain High Enough she shares her story Boot narrates how being born with a physical disability guarantees you will run into obstacles for life But she tells how those obstacles become challenges and they can be overcome through humor and by exploiting your strongest talent Beginning in January of 2015 and running through June of 2018 Boot documents her feelings thoughts and activities in a diary format which she shares in Ain't No Mountain High Enough It offers insight into one woman's challenges with a disability while giving inspiration to others facing the same difficulties

This Ain't No Promised Land Tina Shelton, 2024-03-19 No matter how far you run you can't escape yourself or outrun the love of God When her husband dies Charlotte can't face the things she's done things that could tear her family apart So she drops a goodbye letter in the cookie jar and flees south to escape everything her life her three daughters the mistakes she's made and the secrets that have been eating her alive She's desperate to find the peace she's looking for somewhere out there Now Gracey and her sisters are alone on Chicago's South Side with nothing but their home and their belongings not a parent to be seen They're doing everything they can to stay together as a family But three young girls sixteen fourteen and twelve aren't meant to parent themselves The close knit community gathers around them to keep them fed and clothed with the utilities on but it isn't enough The girls are struggling and making destructive decisions as a way of coping with abandonment Hundreds of miles away Charlotte is trying to keep her own head above water She's made a close friend who talks to her about God in a way Charlotte's never heard before But when her demons catch up to her she must face her past head on Will she be able to find the courage to embrace motherhood And will that be enough not to lose her family altogether Debut author Tina Shelton drops readers straight into 1980s South Side Chicago Her raw authentic writing welcomes those who are willing to come alongside characters dealing with generational trauma abandonment hidden abuse destructive choices and the desire to be set free This Ain't No Promised Land will appeal to readers of Black Cake Miss Pearly's Girls and Michelle Obama's Becoming

Ain't No Trust Judith Levine, 2013-05-25 Ain't No Trust explores issues of trust and distrust among low income women in the U S at work around childcare in their relationships and with caseworkers and presents richly detailed evidence from in depth interviews about our welfare system and why it s failing the very people it is designed to help By comparing low income mothers experiences before and after welfare reform Judith A Levine probes women s struggles to gain or keep jobs while they simultaneously care for their children often as single mothers By offering a new way to understand how structural factors impact the daily experiences of poor women Ain t No Trust highlights the pervasiveness of distrust in their lives uncovering its hidden sources and documenting its most corrosive and paralyzing effects Levine s critique and conclusions hold powerful implications for scholars and policymakers alike

Ain't Nothing Like Freedom Cynthia McKinney, 2013-03-26 Elected six times to the House from the state of Georgia Cynthia McKinney cut a trail through Congressional deceit like a hot ember through ash She discovered legislators who passed laws without reading them Party leaders who colluded across party lines against their constituents interests Black skinned individuals shilling for the white status quo She excoriated government lassitude over Hurricane Katrina uncovering dark secrets She held the only critical Congressional briefing on 9 11 introducing counter testimony of scholars investigators former intelligence agents As a member of the House Armed Services Committee she held Rumsfeld to account for malfeasance by military contractors and missing billions in the Pentagon s budget Then she hammered him on the reasons for the failure of NORAD air defenses on 9 11 She read truth into the Congressional Record held town halls and hearings led protests showed up while others played along to get along took the side of the people against the will of the Party And when she got too truth seeking and speaking the Republicans rigged the Democratic primaries to boot her out leaving behind a trail of achievements mostly won singlehandedly as a result of her service on the House International Relations House Agriculture House Armed Services and Budget Committees and the Select Committee on Hurricanes Katrina and Rita But McKinney rose again like a Phoenix answering the call to run as 2008 Green Party candidate for President challenging the corrupt two party stranglehold on American democracy Then it was on to the Freedom Flotilla to Gaza to be seized on the high seas and imprisoned in Israel On to Tripoli to serve as witness to the NATO terror bombing of Libya On to Malaysia to serve on the War Crimes Commission Often introduced as the Sojourner Truth the Harriet Tubman of our age McKinney reflects here on the Biblical figures of Esther Deborah and Naomi This is the Cynthia McKinney saga as it stands to date what she saw what she learned and how she fought for change
