Anais Nin Naked Under The Mask:

Anais Nin, Naked Under the Mask Elisabeth Barillé,1992 Anais Nin Elisabeth Barillé,1992 Anais Nin, Fictionality and Femininity Helen Tookey,2003 Helen Tookey examines the work of Ana s Nin 1903 77 and the different versions of Nin herself as woman writer and iconic figure through the lens of cultural and historical contexts She focuses particularly on questions of identity and femininity exploring how the self for Nin is constructed through narratives and performances of various kinds and shedding light on key issues and conflicts within feminist thinking since the 1970s particularly questions of identity femininity and psychoanalysis The Making of a Counter-culture Icon Maria R. Bloshteyn,2007-01-01 At first glance the works of Fedor Dostoevsky 1821 1881 do not appear to have much in common with those of the controversial American writer Henry Miller 1891 1980 However the influencer of Dostoevsky on Miller was in fact enormous and shaped the latter s view of the world of literature and of his own writing The Making of a Counter Culture Icon examines the obsession that Miller and his contemporaries the so called Villa Seurat circle had with Dostoevsky and the impact that this obsession had on their own work Renowned for his psychological treatment of characters Dostoevsky became a model for Miller Lawrence Durrell and Anais Nin interested as they were in developing a new kind of writing that would move beyond staid literary conventions Maria Bloshteyn argues that as Dostoevsky was concerned with representing the individual s perception of the self and the world he became an archetype for Miller and the other members of the Villa Seurat circle writers who were interested in precise psychological characterizations as well as intriguing narratives Tracing the cross cultural appropriation and mis interpretation of Dostoevsky s methods and philosophies by Miller Durrell and Nin The Making of a Counter Culture Icon gives invaluable insight into the early careers of the Villa Seurat writers and testifies to Dostoevsky s influence on twentieth century literature Literary Seductions Frances Wilson,2025-10-16 We have all surrendered ourselves to the world that writing creates Eudora Welty once observed that her mother read the works of Charles Dickens in the same spirit with which she would have eloped with him Some of us remember our first novel with more pleasurable vividness than our first kiss Many of us go to on line chat rooms looking for love with our keyboard And most of us have tried to seduce with words reciting that Shakespeare sonnet or composing that Valentine s Day poem with tremulous hope All writing seeks to ensnare the reader in its embrace As Frances Wilson also proves in this engaging enlightening and provocative new book writing can also ensnare the writers themselves Highlighting the lives and loves of celebrated literary couples Literary Seductions reveals the depth of their passion for language their own as well as their partner s Taking as a point of departure the legendary courtship of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett a courtship conceived on the printed page Wilson explores how easily how seductively literary desire becomes sexual desire and vice versa Literary seductions she writes are violent extreme and irreversible Not all reading seduces not all writing inflames But when they do what is written ceases to be merely an arrangement of symbols on a page The word has been made flesh Lady

Caroline Lamb and Lord Byron Anaïs Nin and Henry Miller Laura Riding and Robert Graves Osip and Nadzheda Mandelstam W B and Georgie Yeats were all in the grip of a compulsion for writing and reading enmeshed in words Miller called his relationship with Nin a literary fuck fest for Riding and Graves it took on the self destructive and self conscious melodrama of a Russian novel for the Mandelstams it was a life giving if self sacrificing bond in a precarious world for George and W B Yeats it offered sexual stimulus The couplings of verbs and nouns do more than precede coupling they comprise it Literary Seductions is itself a seductive book The elegant power of Wilson's arguments the rigor of her research and the delights of her prose enthrall the reader Here is intellectual engagement and readerly pleasure rolled into one Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15 Anaïs Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture The Critical Response to Anais Nin Philip K. Jason, 1996-07-30 Best known for her diary Anais Nin was also the author of several novels short fiction and a book on D H Lawrence As a woman who made a career of her aesthetic femininity her works helped shape the future of gender studies and feminist literary criticism Her writings have challenged numerous critics while her life has been equally fascinating The selections in this book represent the critical response to her works from her first efforts in the 1930s to the posthumous publication of unexpurgated diary volumes beginning in 1986 including the views of major biographers and contemporary critics Born in France in 1903 Anais Nin spent her life in New York Paris and Los Angeles where she died in 1977 Like the chaotic passages of her life her writings have not easily fallen into neat categories Though she published several novels short fiction and erotica she is best known for her enormous and captivating diary which sometimes commanded more attention in unpublished form than her published fiction did As a woman writer who made a career of her aesthetic femininity her works helped shape the future of gender studies and feminist literary criticism The selections in this volume trace the critical response to Nin's works from the 1930s to the present Though Nin died nearly 20 years ago the posthumous publication of several of her works including three unexpurgated diary volumes has prompted renewed critical attention including two major biographical studies Because biographical concerns dominate critical studies this book contains not only sections on her work in general her short fiction and her novels but also special sections on her monumental diary and on her public and private selves Within each section critical articles and reviews are reprinted chronologically so that the reader may trace the response to Nin over time A bibliography lists works for further consultation and an introductory essay explores the direction of critical attention to her writings With the Stroke of a Pen A. Louise Staman, 2002-11-11 In the tradition of The Professor and The Madman comes a brilliant expos on the career and murder of celebrated French publisher Robert Denoel 8 page photo insert S, M, L, XL Rem Koolhaas, Bruce Mau, 1997-10-01 S M L XL presents a selection of the remarkable visionary design work produced by the Dutch firm Office for Metropolitan Architecture O M A and its acclaimed founder Rem Koolhaas in its first twenty years along with a variety of insightful often poetic writings The inventive collaboration between Koolhaas and designer Bruce Mau is a graphic overture that weaves together architectural projects photos and sketches diary excerpts personal travelogues fairy tales and fables as well as critical essays on contemporary architecture and society The book's title is also its framework projects and essays are arranged according to scale While Small and Medium address issues ranging from the domestic to the public Large focuses on what Koolhaas calls the architecture of Bigness Extra Large features projects at the urban scale along with the important essay What Ever Happened to Urbanism and other studies of the contemporary city Running throughout the book is a dictionary of an adventurous new Koolhaasian language definitions commentaries and quotes from hundreds of literary cultural artistic and architectural sources American Women Writers Taryn Benbow-Pfalzgraf, 2000
