

The background of the entire slide is a deep space image with a blue and purple nebula. In the center-left, there is a dark, circular black hole. To the right of the black hole, a series of white arrows points from left to right, representing a flow of information or energy. On the left side, there are some faint, colorful scribbles that look like string theory diagrams. On the right side, there are some faint, colorful lines that also look like string theory diagrams.
