An Inquiry Into Soteriology From A Biblical Theological Perspective:

An Inquiry Into Soteriology from a Biblical Theological Perspective John E. Hartley, 1981-01-01 The Usefulness of Scripture Daniel Castelo, Sara M. Koenig, David R. Nienhuis, 2018-05-04 Robert Wall began his teaching career at Seattle Pacific University in 1978. Now forty years later and in celebration of his seventieth birthday, colleagues and former students have gathered to produce this volume in honor of their friend and teacher. The results are sure to delight all of those who have studied under or been friends of Professor Wall. The essays are grouped under two general themes: theology and methodology, with an emphasis on Wesleyan biblical hermeneutics, canonical perspectives, and the implications of these approaches for church life and work and biblical texts, themes especially with a view to the relationship of the study of Scripture to the life of the Christian. In both of these areas, the contributions bear in mind Wall's conviction that academic study and spiritual life need not in fact be kept apart. The contributors to this volume include Frank Anthony Spina, Andrew Knapp, Shannon Nicole Smythe, Daniel Castelo, Anthony B. Robinson, Eugene E. Lemcio, Sara M. Koenig, Jack Levison, Laura C. S. Holmes, John Painter, and Stephen E. Fowl. Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling George R. Ross, 2011-03-14 Initially developed as a classroom resource, Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling serves as a primary example of the complexities involved in integrating psychology, theology, and spirituality into the counseling process. The would-be counselor and the experienced professional are each introduced to a systematic evaluation model for determining how effectively a specific Christian Counseling Program incorporates psychological, spiritual, and theological constructs into their milieu. After presenting a working definition of the counseling process and its relationship to psychology, theology, and spirituality, an application of the evaluation model to four Christian Counseling programs is demonstrated. Biblical Counsel, 1993 Covenant-Making Charles J. Conniry, Laura K. Simmons, 2014-05-29 This collection explores the central theological notion of covenant. It has been produced in honor of Dr. R. Larry Shelton, respected scholar and beloved husband, father, colleague, and friend. Covenant, the unifying theme of this book, is a subject to which Dr. Shelton devoted considerable attention over his forty-five year career as a scholar and teacher. His 2006 book Cross and Covenant: Interpreting the Atonement for 21st Century Mission stands as one of the most incisive treatments of the atonement from a covenantal perspective. The contributors of this volume consist of Shelton's current colleagues at George Fox Evangelical Seminary, those with whom he served in other institutions, and friends and former students whose vision of covenant Shelton inspired. These writers demonstrate that whether one considers such diverse subject matter as atonement theory, the church's mission, the discernment of prophetic spirits, non-Western ontologies, soteriology, biblical interpretation, sanctification, theodicy, family life, or theology proper, one's understanding is deficient without giving due consideration to the role of covenant relationality. The Wesleyan Holiness Movement: Parts I-III Charles Edwin Jones, 2005 James Alison and a Girardian Theology John P. Edwards, 2020-05-14 Opening with a Foreword by James Alison, this volume is the first in-depth treatment of Alison's theological method John P Edwards shows that Alison s theological project outstrips Ren Girard s application of mimetic theory to theology He concludes that an explicitly Christian theological perspective is necessary for providing a fully coherent account of Girard s notions of conversion and mimetic desire This volume grounds Alison s theological method in his understanding of the ongoing interaction between conversion and theological reflection which is informed by his use of mimetic theory While Alison describes this method as theology in the order of the discovery the author refers to it as an inductive theology The volume closes by demonstrating that such a theology bears fruit in a renewed understanding of the value of Christian doctrines and particularly the doctrine of revelation

Life in the Son Robert Shank,2024-06-18 A deep study on the doctrine of eternal security Does one moment of faith secure a person s eternal destiny with God even if that person later stops following and trusting in Jesus Or does a person have to keep on trusting and following Jesus to remain in a saving relationship with God Now expanded with new chapters and research this landmark book continues to offer one of the most penetrating studies on the controversial doctrine of eternal security perseverance and apostasy in the New Testament Calling into question the popular once saved always saved belief internationally respected pastor and scholar Dr Robert Shank reveals that the question we should be asking is not Is the believer secure but rather What does it mean to be a believer Straightforward thorough and grounded in biblical understanding this book warns Christians about dangers that could potentially lead a believer to become an unbeliever falling away from faith and share in the unbeliever s eternal condemnation

Cross Covenant R. Larry Shelton,2006-10-01 Seeking a fresh missionally relevant account of Christ s work Larry Shelton analyzes the biblical notion of sacrifice as a gift alongside other theories of atonement He attempts to show a historical movement away from penal substitutionary theologies toward a Trinitarian relational model
