A View From The Balcony Leadership Challenges In Systems Of Care:

A View from the Balcony Gary De Carolis, 2005 With more than twenty years of hands on leadership experience in federal state and local government Gary De Carolis President Center for Community Leadership is a leading authority in creating community based systems of services and supports for children with disabilities and their families His new book A View from the Balcony is a source of unique insight into leading planning and implementing effective systems change You will Learn from real world examples how to design build and administer a system of care Realize the vital role of parent organizations in all aspects of systems of care Understand the theory and practice of effective leadership in systems of care Discover how you can make a real difference in your community Building Stronger Communities with Children and Families (2nd Edition)

Karl Brettig, 2019-11-18 This book highlights key principles emerging from the process of implementing an entire community and government approach to supporting families at risk of vulnerability Drawing on the expertise of a number of practitioners and researchers it also examines the efficacy of some of the early intervention and prevention strategies developed through the Australian Communities for Children initiative It will be of particular interest to community services education and child welfare practitioners and policy makers involved with or contemplating involvement in implementing a place based collective impact approach to child development wellbeing and protection How can we better engage with families at risk in a digital world How can we deliver holistic integrated support How can we redesign our family support systems What kind of leadership and governance will it take to implement the kind of systems change that delivers improved outcomes These are critical questions we need to engage with if we are to collaboratively redesign inadequate siloed approaches and build family friendly communities that improve the lives of children and families Building Integrated Connections for Children, their Families and Communities Karl Brettig, Margaret Sims, 2011-07-13 Research and practice shows that many vulnerable children and families face more than one challenge and require more than one intervention However our service system has evolved historically to deal with one thing at a time or to provide services from multiple sources This lack of integration can have a devastating effect on some families where key information or warning signs are missed Coronial and judicial inquiries constantly stress the negative impact of a siloed approach to service The Practice of Adaptive Leadership Ronald A. Heifetz, Marty Linsky, Alexander Grashow, 2009-05-18 The guide to approaching leadership in a rapidly changing world When change requires you to challenge people's familiar reality it can be difficult dangerous work Whatever the context whether in the private or the public sector many will feel threatened as you push through major changes But as a leader you need to find a way to make it work Ron Heifetz first defined this problem with his distinctive theory of adaptive leadership in Leadership Without Easy Answers In a second book Leadership on the Line Heifetz and coauthor Marty Linsky highlighted the individual and organizational dangers of leading through deep change in business politics and community life Now Heifetz Linsky and coauthor Alexander Grashow are taking the next step The Practice of Adaptive Leadership is a hands on practical guide containing stories tools diagrams cases and worksheets to help you develop your skills as an adaptive leader able to take people outside their comfort zones and assess and address the toughest challenges The authors have decades of experience helping people and organizations create cultures of adaptive leadership In today s rapidly changing world The Practice of Adaptive Leadership can be your handbook to meeting the demands of leadership in the midst of complexity
