A Woman With A Purpose The Diaries Of Elizabeth Smith 1872 1884:

A Woman with a Purpose Elizabeth Smith,1980 Shortt Elizabeth Smith Women in Higher Education, 1850-1970 E. Lisa Panayotidis,Paul Stortz,2017-09-19 This edited collection illustrates the way in which women s experiences of academe could be both contextually diverse but historically and culturally similar It looks at both the micro individual women and universities and macro level comparative analyses among regions and countries within regional national trans national and international contexts The contributors integrally advance knowledge about the university in history by exploring the intersections of the lived experiences of women students and professors practices of co education and intellectual and academic cultures They also raise important questions about the complementary and multidirectional flow and exchange of academic knowledge and information among gender groups across programmes disciplines and universities Historical inquiry and interpretation serve as efficacious ways with which to understand contemporary events and discourses in higher education and more broadly in community and society This book will provide important historical contexts for current debates about the numerical dominance and significance of women in higher education and the tensions embedded in the gendering of specific academic programs and disciplines and university policies missions and mandates

The First Women Lawyers Mary Jane Mossman,2006-05-31 This comparative study explores the lives of some of the women who first initiated challenges to male exclusivity in the legal professions in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Their challenges took place at a time of considerable optimism about progressive societal change including new and expanding opportunities for women as well as a variety of proposals for reforming law legal education and standards of legal professionalism By situating women s claims for admission to the bar within this reformist context in different jurisdictions the study examines the intersection of historical ideas about gender and about legal professionalism at the turn of the twentieth century In exploring these systemic issues the study also provides detailed examinations of the lives of some of the first women lawyers in six jurisdictions the United States Canada Britain New Zealand and Australia India and western Europe In exploring how individual women adopted different legal arguments in litigated cases or devised particular strategies to overcome barriers to professional work the study assesses how shifting and contested ideas about gender and about legal professionalism shaped women s opportunities and choices as well as both support for and opposition to their claims As a comparative study of the first women lawyers in several different jurisdictions the book reveals how a number of quite different women engaged with ideas of gender and legal professionalism at the turn of the twentieth century

Courtship, Love, and Marriage in Nineteenth-Century English Canada Peter Ward,1990-03-01 Courtship love and marriage are seen today as very private affairs and historians have generally concluded that after the late eighteenth century young people began to enjoy great autonomy in courtship and decisions about marriage Peter Ward disagrees with this conclusion and argues that freedom in nineteenth century English Canada was constrained by an intricate social institutional and familial framework which greatly influenced the behaviour of young couples both before and after marriage

Schooling and Scholars in Nineteenth-century Ontario Susan E. Houston, Alison L. Prentice, 1988-01-01 Nineteenth century educational reformers were fond of an agricultural metaphor when it came to the provision of more and better schooling even good land they argued had to be cultivated otherwise noxious weeds sprang up In this study of education in Ontario from the establishment of Upper Canada to the end of Egerton Ryerson's career as chief superintendent of schools in 1876 Susan Houston and Alison Prentice explore the roots of the provincial public school system set up to instill a work ethic and moral discipline appropriate to the new society as well as the beginnings of separate schools today the Ontario school system is once again the subject of intense and often bitter debate Many of the most contentious issues have deep and complex roots that go back to this era Houston and Prentice tell the story of how Ontario came to have a universal school system of exceptional quality and shed valuable light on an area of current concern Women Who Made the News Marjory Louise Lang, 1999 However by providing news about women for women they made a distinctly female culture visible within newspapers chronicling the increasing participation of women in public affairs Women Who Made the News is the remarkable story of the achievements of those journalists who helped raise women's awareness of each other in the period ending with World War II BOOK JACKET A Darkened House Geoffrey Bilson, 1980-12-15 From its first appearance in 1832 until the last scares of 1871 cholera aroused fear in British North America The disease killed 20 000 people and its psychological effects were enormous Cholera unsettled governments undermined the medical profession exposed inadequacies in public health and widened the division between rich and poor In a fascinating and disturbing book Geoffrey Bilson traces the story of the cholera epidemics as they ravaged the Canadas and the Atlantic colonies The political repercussions were extensive particularly in Lower Canada Governments both colonial and municipal imposed various public health measures including quarantine These actions were always temporary and poorly enforced and they sometimes met with violent opposition especially among the poor and the immigrants hit hardest by cholera Even the panic that ensued from the periodic onslaughts of the disease could not overcome the prevailing laissez faire attitude towards public health legislation The medical profession was equally helpless Doctors could neither cure the disease nor isolate its cause and public sentiment against them ran high A Darkened House is important reading for those interested in Canada's social political and medical history Travels and Identities Peter E. Paul Dembski, 2017-01-05 Elizabeth Smith Shortt was one of the first three women to obtain a medical degree in Canada and her husband Adam Shortt enjoyed a successful career as a professor of politics and economics at Queen's University in Kingston In 1908 Adam Shortt relocated his family to Ottawa to take up a commission to oversee civil service reform under Prime Minister Wilfrid Laurier There he convinced his superiors that an onsite investigation of four European countries would expedite his effort to improve Canada's bureaucracy and in June 1911 he and Elizabeth embarked on their trip This book chronicles their Atlantic crossing and extended visit to England as well as trips to Switzerland Austria Germany and the Netherlands The Shortts were generally pleased with England and its values but Elizabeth was sharply critical of the behaviour of British nurses Her diaries and letters here reprinted critiqued the lands and peoples she visited in Europe Leading foreign feminists such as Lady Chichester and Mrs Maud of the Mothers Union in England sought her advice as did Alice Salomon in Germany the corresponding secretary of the International Council of Women The diaries and letters presented in this volume reveal the multifaceted nature of Adam and Elizabeth Shortt from public figures to difficult employers to a couple who couldn't help but live beyond their means Peter E Paul Dembski's introduction paints a picture of a couple who lived as moderate liberals with occasional conservative or radical views and who blended science and an adherence to Protestant Christianity into their thinking Their travel experiences during a period of building political upheaval provide a valuable snapshot of pre First World War European society and culture Diary of a European Tour, 1900 Margaret Addison, 1999 Her trip ended with visits to the local women's colleges in Oxford and Cambridge visits that were important to her understanding of how the British experience could be adapted to benefit the woman who would live in Annesley Hall for which Victoria College was then raising funds BOOK JACKET

Suitable for the Wilds Mary Percy Jackson, 2006 The plea was advertised in the British Medical Journal in February 1929 seeking strong energetic Medical Women with post graduate experience in Midwifery for country work in western Canada A young Dr Mary Percy was intrigued After graduating with degrees in medicine and surgery from the University of Birmingham in 1927 she had been searching for the kind of opportunity which would offer both adventure and practical experience She answered the advertisement and set off for the Peace River region of Northern Alberta in June of 1929 Little did she know that her adventure in the Canadian north was to last more than seventy years Suitable for the Wilds Letters from Northern Alberta 1929-1931 is a collection of Dr Mary Percy Jackson's letters written to family and friends in the early years of her practice from 1929-1931 The letters offer a fascinating glimpse at life in northern Alberta at the beginning of the Depression when the area was being farmed and settled by new European immigrants These homesteaders along with the area's Aboriginal and Métis population were Dr Percy's patients scattered throughout a territory covering nearly 400 square miles Vigilant about vaccination nutrition and preventive medicine she quickly proved to be a talented physician who was truly ahead of her time particularly in the area of tuberculosis treatment and prevention Dr Percy's dedication good nature and unfailing sense of humour shine through in her letters This delightful and captivating collection is a tribute to her indomitable spirit
