A Treasury Of White House Cooking:

A Treasury of White House Cooking François Rysavy, Frances Spatz Leighton, 1972 A Treasury of White House Cooking is a truly unique and authentic cookbook which presents a collection of more than 100 menus and more than 500 recipes that enable the home cook to duplicate the dishes served in the White House on formal state occasions and at intimate meals shared by the Presidents their families and their friends A Treasury of White House Cooking François Rysavy, 1957 Food and Drink in American History Andrew F. Smith, 2013-10-28 This three volume encyclopedia on the history of American food and beverages serves as an ideal companion resource for social studies and American history courses covering topics ranging from early American Indian foods to mandatory nutrition information at fast food restaurants The expression you are what you eat certainly applies to Americans not just in terms of our physical health but also in the myriad ways that our taste preferences eating habits and food culture are intrinsically tied to our society and history This standout reference work comprises two volumes containing more than 600 alphabetically arranged historical entries on American foods and beverages as well as dozens of historical recipes for traditional American foods and a third volume of more than 120 primary source documents Never before has there been a reference work that coalesces this diverse range of information into a single set The entries in this set provide information that will transform any American history research project into an engaging learning experience Examples include explanations of how tuna fish became a staple food product for Americans how the canning industry emerged from the Civil War the difference between Americans and people of other countries in terms of what percentage of their income is spent on food and beverages and how taxation on beverages like tea rum and whisky set off important political rebellions in U S history Dinner with the President Alex Prud'homme, 2024-02-20 A wonderfully entertaining often surprising history of presidential taste from the grim meals eaten by Washington and his starving troops at Valley Forge to Trump's fast food burgers and Biden's ice cream what they ate why they ate it and what it tells us about the state of the nation from the coauthor of Julia Child's bestselling memoir My Life in France A beautifully written book about how the presidential palate has helped shape America Fascinating Stanley Tucci Some of the most significant moments in American history have occurred over meals as U S presidents broke bread with friends or foes Thomas Jefferson's nation building receptions in the new capital Washington D C Ulysses S Grant's state dinner for the king of Hawaii Teddy Roosevelt's groundbreaking supper with Booker T Washington Richard Nixon's practiced use of chopsticks to pry open China Jimmy Carter's cakes and pies that fueled a détente between Israel and Egypt at Camp David Here Alex Prud'homme invites readers into the White House kitchen to reveal the sometimes curious tastes of twenty six of America's most influential presidents and the ways their choices affected food policy around the world And the White House menu grew over time from simple eggs and black coffee for Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War to jelly beans and enchiladas for Ronald Reagan and arugula for Barack Obama What our leaders say about food touches on everything from our nation's shifting diet and local politics to global trade war class gender race and so much more Prud homme also details overlooked figures like George Washington's enslaved chef Hercules Posey whose meals burnished the president's reputation before the cook narrowly escaped to freedom and pioneering First Ladies such as Dolley Madison and Jackie Kennedy As he weaves these stories together Prud homme shows that food is not just fuel when it is served to the most powerful people in the world It is a tool of communication a lever of power and persuasion and a symbol of the nation Included are ten authentic recipes for favorite presidential dishes such as Martha Washington's Preserved Cherries Abraham Lincoln's Gingerbread Men William H Taft's Billy Bi Mussel Soup Franklin D Roosevelt's Reverse Martini Lady Bird Johnson's Pedernales River Chili
