

This vocabulary contains 109 entries in the Powhatan language of Virginia as collected on the 1606 voyage of Captain John Smith. The volume also includes word-lists from two otherwise unattested Virginia languages: 17 words of King William County Pamunkey collected in 1858, and six words of Nansemond collected from the last living speaker in 1907. This edition features an introduction by Powhatan scholar Frederic Gleach.

About the American Language Reprint series

The American Language Reprint series was conceived expressly to preserve brief vocabularies of Native American languages and dialects. It consolidates many rare and hard-to-find sources recorded from the earliest years of European colonization up to the modern era, and aims to provide a comprehensive collection of Native American languages.
