A Year With Thomas Merton:

A Year with Thomas Merton Thomas Merton, 2009-10-13 A 365 daily with inspirational and provocative selections from the journals of Thomas Merton combined with drawings and photographs by Merton This volume of daily inspiration from Thomas Merton draws from Merton's journals and papers to present each day a seasonally appropriate and thought provoking insight or observation Each month will begin with one of Merton's delightful pen and ink drawings or one of his elegant black and white photographs

Through the Year With Thomas Merton Thomas P. McDonnell, 1985-09-04 A meditation a day from Thomas Merton This convenient day book is a compendium of inspiring passages from the writings of one of this century's spiritual giants It offers daily challenges for thoughtful meditation intended to stimulate provoke and lead to grace Here are some enduring thoughts found in these pages We cannot be happy if we expect to live all the time at the highest peak of intensity Happiness is not a matter of intensity but of balance and order and rhythm and harmony Every moment and every event of every man's life on earth plants something in his soul Nothing is more suspicious in a man who seems holy than an impatient desire to reform other men Pay as little attention as you can to the faults of other people and none at all to their natural defects and eccentricities The wise heart lives in Christ Wisdom manifests itself and yet is hidden The more it hides the more it is manifest and the more it is manifest the more it is hidden For God is known where he is apprehended as unknown and he is heard when we realize that we do not know the sound of his voice God utters me like a word containing a partial thought of himself Our full spiritual life is life in wisdom life in Christ The darkness of faith bears fruit in the light of wisdom Love cannot come of emptiness It is full of reality

A Year with Thomas Merton Thomas Merton, 2005-01-01 Blaze of Recognition Thomas Merton, 1983 The Courage for Truth Thomas Merton, 1993 From 1948 when he first wrote to Evelyn Waugh who was editing The Seven Storey Mountain for publication in England until his death in 1968 Thomas Merton corresponded with writers around the world developing an ever widening circle of friends in Europe the Soviet Union South and North America Merton wrote and heard from many prominent writers of the stature of Waugh Jacques Maritain Czeslaw Milosz Boris Pasternak James Baldwin Walker Percy Henry Miller and Victoria Ocampo He also corresponded with and encouraged newer writers in Latin America like Ernesto Cardenal Merton sensed in these writers a hope for the future of humanity and believed that the courage for truth was their special gift Writing to Jose Coronel Urtecho Merton asserted that poets remain almost the only ones who have anything to say They have the courage to disbelieve what is shouted with the greatest amount of noise from every loudspeaker Courage rooted in true freedom is evident in Merton's own life He shared with his literary friends his concerns about war violence and repression racism and injustice and all forms of human aggression Forbidden to publish on the subject of war by his superiors he obeyed but continued to circulate his famous Cold War Letters He did not hesitate to criticize his church when he saw there was more concern for the institutional structure than there was for people Merton especially admired those who had the courage to write under oppression like Pasternak Milosz and Cardenal Turning Toward the World Thomas Merton,2009-10-13 Inexorably life moves on towards crisis and mystery Everyone must struggle to adjust himself to this to face the situation for now is the judgment of the world In a way each one judges himself merely by what he does Does not says Yet let us not completely dismiss words They do have meaning They are related to action They spring from action and they prepare for it they clarify it they direct it Thomas Merton August 16 1961 The fourth volume of Thomas Merton s complete journals one of his final literary legacies springs from three hundred handwritten pages that capture in candid lively deeply revealing passages the growing unrest of the 1960s which Merton witnessed within himself as plainly as in the changing culture around him In these decisive years 1960 1963 Merton now in his late forties and frequently working in a new hermitage at the Abbey of Gethsemani finds himself struggling between his longing for a private spiritual life and the irresistible pull of social concerns Precisely when he longs for more solitude and convinces himself he could not cut back on his writing Merton begins asking complex questions about the contemporary culture the world with its funny pants of which I do not know the name its sandals and sunglasses war and the churches role in society Thus despite his resistance he is drawn into the world where his celebrity and growing concerns for social issues fuel his writings on civil rights nonviolence and pacifism and lead him into conflict with those who urge him to leave the moral issues to bishops and theologians This pivotal volume in the Merton journals reveals a man at the height of a brilliant writing career marking the fourteenth anniversary of his priesthood but yearning still for the key to true happiness and grace Here in his most private diaries Merton is as intellectually curious critical and insightful as in his best known public writings while he documents his movement from the cloister toward the world from Novice Master to hermit from ironic critic to joyous witness to the mystery of God s plan Follow the Ecstasy John Howard Griffin,2010-10-01 In 1969 one year after Thomas Merton s tragic and suspicious death John Howard Griffin was invited to write a biography of America s most famous monk a monk who strangely had become a best selling theologian The result was Follow the Ecstasy The Hermitage Years of Thomas Merton 1983 Both Merton and Griffin were converts to Catholicism and they had become fast friends during Griffin s occasional retreats to the Trappist Abbey of Gethsemani where Merton was cloistered As Robert Bonazzi writes in his Foreword With natural humility and intense spirituality they taught each other by example and silence Merton and Griffin were both photographers as well as writers Griffin wrote about Merton s painting and photography in A Hidden Wholeness The Visual World of Thomas Merton 1970 They also shared a fascination with the French theologian Jacques Maritain as well as French modernists Pierre Reverdy George Braque and Albert Camus Griffin fell ill before he could finish his biography of Merton and the mantle of official biographer passed to Michael Mott author of The Seven Mountains of Thomas Merton an essential compendium of the monk s life Yet Follow the Ecstasy gets closer to the man a portrait made by one who shared not only personal histories and interests with Merton but an intuitive perspective of solitude The Intimate Merton Thomas Merton,2009-10-06 In this diary like memoir composed of his most poignant and insightful journal entries The Intimate Merton lays bare the steep ways of Thomas Merton's spiritual path. Culled from the seven volumes of his personal journals, this twenty-nine year chronicle deepens and extends the story Thomas Merton recounted and made famous in The Seven Storey Mountain. This book is the spiritual autobiography of our century's most celebrated monk: the wisdom gained from the personal experience of an enduring spiritual teacher. Here is Merton's account of his life's major challenges, his confrontations with monastic and church hierarchies, his interaction with religious traditions east and west, and his antiwar and civil rights activities. In The Intimate Merton, we engage a writer's art of confession and witness as he searches for a contemporary, authentic, and global spirituality. Recounting Merton's earliest days in the monastery to his journey east to meet the Dalai Lama, The Intimate Merton captures the essence of what makes Thomas Merton's life journey so perennially relevant.
