A Trampoline Poems 1952 1964:

A Trampoline Gael Turnbull, 1968 A Trampoline: Poems 1952-1964 Gael Turnbull, 1968 The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names The Poems of Basil Bunting Basil Bunting, 2016-06-14 Basil Bunting's work was published haphazardly throughout most of his life and in many cases he did not oversee publication This is the first critical edition of the complete poems and offers an accurate text with variants from all printed sources Don Share annotates Bunting's often complex and allusive verse with much illuminating quotation from his prose writings interviews and correspondence He also examines Bunting's use of sources including Persian literature and classical mythology and explores the Northumbrian roots of Bunting's poetic vocabulary and use of dialect New British Poetries Robert Hampson, 1995 This collection of essays covers the wide range of innovative but neglected poetry which flourished in journals and presses outside the mainstream during the period 1970 1990 The Poetry of Saying Robert Sheppard, 2005-09-01 In The Poetry of Saying Robert Sheppard explores an array of experimental writers and styles of writing many of which have never secured a large audience in Britain but which are often fascinatingly innovative As a published poet in this tradition Sheppard provides a detailed and thought provoking account of the development of the British poetry movement from the 1950s As well as analysing the work of individual poets such as Roy Fisher Lee Harwood and Tom Raworth The Poetry of Saying also examines the influence of the Poetry Society and poetry magazines on the evolution of British poetry throughout this period The overriding virtue of the poetry of this period is its diversity a fact that Sheppard has not ignored As well as providing a fascinating insight into the work of these poets The Poetry of Saying offers an insider's commentary on the social political and historical background during this exciting period in British poetry Visual Culture in the Northern British Archipelago Ysanne Holt, David Martin-Jones, Owain Jones, 2018-05-16 This edited collection including contributors from the disciplines of art history film studies cultural geography and cultural anthropology explores ways in which islands in the north of England and Scotland have provided space for a variety of visual cultural practices and forms of creative expression which have informed our understanding of the world Simultaneously the chapters reflect upon the importance of these islands as a space in which and with which to contemplate the pressures and the possibilities within contemporary society This book makes a timely and original contribution to the developing field of island studies and will be of interest to scholars studying issues of place community and the peripheries Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1970 The Gist of Origin, 1951-1971 Cid Corman,1975 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1965 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards
