A Viennese Architect:

Architecture in Vienna Renate Banik-Schweitzer, Stadtplanung Wien, 1998 This is a guide to the architecture of Vienna for both visitors to the city and those interested in architecture There are essays on the history of the city its recent history residential building and 20th century architecture Vienna 1900 Vera Horvat-Pintarić, 1989 The Architecture of Red Vienna, 1919-1934 Eve Blau, 1999 Encyclopedic in its coverage this seminal work focuses on the architecture of Prague from the turn of the century to the end of the Second World War a rich matrix within which to place the figures who created the powerful innovative spirits of modern Czech architecture The book documents the architects structures and theoretical underpinnings that helped to shape Prague s cultural heritage and present day artistic spirit Adolf Loos Panayotis Tournikiotis, 1994 Viennese architect Adolf Loos was one of the most important pioneers of the European Modern Movement Born in 1870 he was an early opponent of the decorative trends of Art Nouveau believing instead that architecture devoid of ornament represented pure and lucid thought His rationalist design theories were put into practice in the Karntner Bar Vienna 1907 Steiner House Vienna 1920 and Villa Muller Prague 1930 Surprisingly there is no other monograph on Loos in English currently available Adolf Loos joins Adalberto Libera and Albert Kahn in Princeton Architectural Press s historical monographs series and presents this great modernist s complete works through numerous illustrations Rebel Modernists Liane Lefaivre, 2017 Set within the fascinating cultural and political world of Vienna from the fin de siecle to the present day this book provides an insightful analysis of the city s extraordinarily rich architectural tradition Since 1900 Vienna has produced many great architects and their work includes some of the finest masterpieces of the twentieth century such as Otto Wagner s Stadtbahn stations his Postsparkasse and his Majolica House Adolf Loos s American Bar and Goldman Salastch the Secession building by Joseph Maria Olbrich and Josef Hoffmann s Palais Stoclet not to mention Ludwig Wittgenstein s House for his sister Beginning with Wagner s polemical manifesto Moderne Architektur it stresses the importance of the fraught and highly polarized cultural politics that engulfed Vienna for most of the twentieth century and ultimately produced much of what is modern in every field of culture and science It shows how leading cultural figures such as Freud Mahler Schoenberg Klimt and Twain encouraged a rebellious architecture which continued in later eras with the Wiener Gruppe amongst others The book also places architectural history within the context of the political economy that has shaped Vienna and highlights the relatively unknown tradition of Viennese social housing initiated by social democratic Red Vienna in the 1920s Today 60% of Vienna s population lives in the most successful social housing in the world which has proved to be an important factor in stimulating the highly successful economy of the country as a whole Gustav Peichl: A Viennese architect A. Sarnitz, 1993 Erasures and Eradications in Modern Viennese Art, Architecture and Design Megan Brandow-Faller, Laura Morowitz, 2022-09-23 Erasures and Eradications in Modern Viennese Art Architecture and Design challenges the received narrative on the artists exhibitions and interpretations of Viennese Modernism The book centers on three main erasures the erasure of Jewish artists and critics erasures relating to gender and sexual identification and erasures of other marginalized figures and movements Restoring missing elements to the story of the visual arts in early twentieth century Vienna authors investigate issues of gender race ethnic and sexual identity and political affiliation Both well studied artists and organizations such as the Secession and the Austrian Werkbund and iconic figures such as Klimt and Hoffmann are explored as are lesser known figures and movements The book s thought provoking chapters expand the chronological contours and canon of artists surrounding Viennese Modernism to offer original nuanced and rich readings of individual works while offering a more diverse portrait of the period from 1890 through World War II and into the present The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history design history architectural history and European studies

Hut Pavilion Shrine: Architectural Archetypes in Mid-Century Modernism Miles David Samson,2016-03-09 The phase of American architectural history we call mid century modernism 1940 1980 saw the spread of Modern Movement tenets of functionalism social service and anonymity into mainstream practice It also saw the spread of their seeming opposites Temples arcades domes and other traditional types occur in both modernist and traditionalist forms from the 1950s to the 1970s Hut Pavilion Shrine examines this crossroads of modernism and the archetypal and critiques its buildings and theory The book centers on one particularly important and omnipresent type the pavilion a type which was the basis of major work by Louis I Kahn Paul Rudolph Philip Johnson Minoru Yamasaki and other eminent architects While focusing primarily on the architecture culture of the United States it also includes the work of British European Team X and Scandinavian designers and writers Making connections between formal analysis historical context and theory the book continues lines of inquiry which have been pursued by Neil Levine and Anthony Vidler on representation and by Sarah Goldhagen and Alice Friedman on modernism s forbidden elements of the honorific and the visually pleasurable It highlights the significance of pavilionizing mid century designers such as Victor Lundy John Johansen Eero Saarinen and Edward Durrell Stone and shows how frequently essentialist and traditionalist types appeared in the roadside vernacular of drive in restaurants gas stations furniture and car showrooms branch banks and motels The book ties together the threads in mid century architectural theory that addressed aspects of type essential structure and primal humanistic aspects of environment making and discusses how these concerns outlived the mid century moment and in the designs and writings of Aldo Rossi and others they paved the way for Post Modernism
