A.W.N. Pugin Margaret Belcher, 1987 A.W.N. Pugin David Frazer Lewis, 2021-03-01 A W N Pugin transformed the Gothic Revival from an architectural style into an international movement He decorated and furnished the Houses of Parliament creating one of the icons of modern British identity in the process His church designs were vastly influential and although he was staunchly Roman Catholic he did much to set the aesthetic tone of modern Anglicanism The house he designed for himself at Ramsgate transformed the Victorian Gothic villa demonstrating the ways a thoroughly modern house could draw integral lessons from the Middle Ages And although his whole ideal was woven around a conception of English identity his influence was international Architects in the United States northern Europe and across the British Empire followed his lead drawing from elements of his aesthetic and ideals and in doing so altered the look and feel of the nineteenth century city Despite the popularity of Pugin s work this is the first single volume overview of his architecture to be published since 1971 It summarises much new scholarship and provides a good introduction to his career as well as new insight for those who might already be familiar with it A.W.N. Pugin Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin, Megan Aldrich, Megan Brewster Aldrich, Paul Atterbury, Barry Bergdoll, Margaret H. Floyd, Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts, 1995-01-01 Pub for Bard Grad Ctr for Studies in Decorative Arts NY Exhibition catalog The Collected Letters of A.W.N. Pugin Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin, 2001 The importance of A W N Pugin 1812 52 in architecture and design in England and beyond is incontestable The leading architect of the Gothic Revival Pugin is one of the most significant figures of the mid nineteenth century and one of the greatest designers His correspondence furnishes more insight into the man and more information about his work than any other source This volume the last of five contains letters from 1851 and the first months of 1852 after that Pugin s health failed and he died in September In the great event of the period the international exhibition held in the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park the display of objects made to Pugin s design which he planned and oversaw was an outstanding success bringing substantial commercial benefit to his colleagues and spreading Pugin s influence even more widely than before The value of his judgment was recognized in his appointment to two committees in connection with the Great Exhibition Frantic though the preparations for what came to be known as the Medieval Court were Pugin made time to write for publication He issued letters and pamphlets in explanation defence and support of the Catholic Church and its re established hierarchy and turned again to the conundrum that had long teased him the relation between the faith and the form not only architectural in which it found expression He completed the book on chancel screens conceived some years before At home in The Grange at Ramsgate he continued to design stained glass windows for other architects as well as his own clients and supervised the production of cartoons he poured out designs in his usual fields of metalwork ceramics furniture carving and wallpaper and branched out not always happily into new areas such as embroidery and the decoration of piano cases The demand for drawings for Westminster where the House of Commons was due to open early in 1852 was as incessant as ever His last child Edmund Peter was born in 1851 only a few months before his first grandchild Mildred Both were baptized in the church of St Augustine which he was still building next to his house and where he himself was soon to be laid in the vault he provided for the purpose The volume also includes some letters which have come to light too late for inclusion in their proper chronological places and some texts of doubtful authenticity The Collected Letters of A.W.N. Pugin: 1849 to 1850 Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin, 2001 The importance of A W N Pugin 1812-52 in the history of the Gothic Revival in the development of ecclesiology in the origins of the Arts and Crafts Movement and in architectural theory is incontestable A leading British architect who was also a designer of furniture textiles stained glass metalwork and ceramics he is one of the most significant figures of the mid nineteenth century and one of the greatest designers His correspondence is important because it provides more insight into the man and more information about his work than any other source In this volume the third of five which spans the years 1846 to 1848 Pugin's two most important churches are completed and the first part of the House of Lords is opened He makes his only trip to Italy and he marries for the third time His correspondence sheds light too on the religious life of the time especially ecclesiastical politics Book Jacket

Palmgren, L. Holloway, 2005-06-03 Leaving the traditional focus on Arthurian romance and Gothic tales the essays in this collection address how the Victorians looked back to the Middle Ages to create a sense of authority for their own ideas in areas such as art religion gender expectations and social services This book will interest specialists in the Victorian period from various fields and will also be a welcome addition to any library serving substantial humanities divisions Because of the interdisciplinary nature of the essays this collection would be useful in a wide range of humanities classes beyond the traditional literature class A.W.N. Pugin and the Revival of Memorial Brasses David Meara, 1991 Examines the important contribution of Augustus Wellby Northmore Pugin 1812-52 in the revival of memorial brasses in English churches an art that had declined since the middle ages Puts Pugin's writings and many designs in the context of 19th century religious revival and the rising fortunes of the Catholic Church and shows how his collaboration with metalworker John Hardman changed the attitudes about memorial brasses and restored a lost standard of craftsmanship Well illustrated largely by brass rubbings Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
