

A white heron stands in a field of tall grass, its long neck curved elegantly. The background is a vast, blue sky with soft, white clouds. The heron's feathers are pure white, contrasting sharply with the blue sky and the golden-brown grass. The overall mood is serene and peaceful.

at home After they eat he says that he will give a sum of money to anyone who can lead him to the white heron The next day Sylvia accompanies the hunter into the forest as he searches for the bird s nest but he does not find it Early the following morning the girl decides to go out and look for the bird by herself so that she can be sure of showing the hunter its exact location when he awakes She decides to climb the tallest tree in the forest so that she can see the entire countryside and she finds the heron just as she had thought she would This is the critical passage of the story When Sylvia climbs the tree as a bird might she arrives at an epiphany at the tree s top High as a bird she has broken free of the world beneath and becomes the heron But Sylvia is so affected by her leaf top observation of the heron and other wildlife that she cannot bring herself to disclose the heron s location to the hunter after all despite his entreaties Sylvia knows that she would be awarded much needed money for directing him to the heron but she decides that she can play no part in bringing about the bird s death The hunter eventually departs without his prize Sylvia grows up to ponder if her choice to conceal the heron s secret was a better choice than to receive the young man s money and friendship The author states that the treasures Sylvia might have lost are easily forgotten among the splendors of the woodland Sarah Orne Jewett September 3 1849 June 24 1909 was an American novelist short story writer and poet best known for her local color works set along or near the southern seacoast of Maine Jewett is recognized as an important practitioner of American literary regionalism A White Heron and Other Stories Sarah Orne Jewett,2007-09-04 A White Heron and Other Stories Sarah Orne Jewett,1999-01 Wonderfully descriptive prose from distinguished regionalist writer includes 10 tales dealing with female friendships poverty and compassion The Town Poor Miss Peck s Promotion The Passing of Sister Barsett 7 more A White Heron and Other Stories Sarah Orne Jewett,2007-06-15 A White Heron, and Other Stories (Classic Reprint) Sarah Orne Jewett,2015-07-11 Excerpt from A White Heron and Other Stories The woods were already filled with shadows one June evening just before eight o clock though a bright sunset still glimmered faintly among the trunks of the trees A little girl was driving home her cow a plodding dilatory provoking creature in her behavior but a valued companion for all that They were going away from whatever light there was and striking deep into the woods but their feet were familiar with the path and it was no matter whether their eyes could see it or not There was hardly a night the summer through when the old cow could be found waiting at the pasture bars on the contrary it was her greatest pleasure to hide herself away among the huckleberry bushes and though she wore a loud bell she had made the discovery that if one stood perfectly still it would not ring About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
