A World Through My Window:

World Through My Window Erwin Schild, 1992 A World to Mend Margaret Pollock Sherwood, 1920 An idle rich man stimulated by World War I becomes a shoemaker in a New England town Cf Hanna A Mirror for the nation Life Through My Window Tana M. Brown, 2010-11-11 There is no available information at this time The World Outside My Window Clare Swatman, 2023-06-05 The Top 100 bestseller a beautiful breathtaking page turner from author Clare Swatman Laura is watching the world go by without her Unable to leave her house since suffering a trauma Laura is stuck gazing out of her window at Willow Crescent relying on husband Jim and best friend Debbie for help Then one day Jim doesn't come home A day becomes two days become a week and still no sign of Jim And with the police half hearted in their efforts to look for him Laura is forced into a decision She's going to have to face the world outside and find her husband herself But what Laura hasn't realised is that Willow Crescent is a community eager to help From Arthur and Carol next door ready to rally the neighbours to Marjorie and her daughter Faye at number nine looking for their own reasons to engage with the world From Sonja at number seven who thinks she may have seen Jim in London to widower Ben at number four who understands all about being lonely Laura has a world ready to embrace her if she can just find the nerve And when it slowly dawns on them all that the Jim they thought they knew may have been hiding some unfathomable secrets Laura has a choice retreat back behind her window or start living the life that was waiting for her all along This is Clare Swatman's tour de force At the same time emotional uplifting page turning and breath taking Laura is a character you will never forget Perfect for fans of Jojo Moyes Beth Moran and Ruth Jones Praise for Clare Swatman A sensitive touching story with emotional depth and page turning quality Helen Rolfe Warm romantic and wonderfully written it's an emotional and thought provoking read with such relatable characters Debbie Howells Unputdownable Swatman's story weaving is perfection Loved every minute of this heartfelt read Rachel Dove Irresistible A delightfully bittersweet story that will appeal to fans of One Day Sunday Mirror A breathless story of enduring love that will fill your heart and give you hope Laura Kemp Such a special book filled with broken and relatable characters who you can't help but love Just Gorgeous Emma Cooper Had me hooked from the beginning and it was a struggle to put down Reader Review Read this book in one sitting Great book and can't wait to read more from this author Perfect for cold winter afternoons Reader Review Absolutely must read 5 stars Reader Review Worlds beyond My Window Rich Burlingham, 2021-11-05 Artist columnist and poet Gertrude McCarty Smith 1923-2007 of Collins Mississippi carried herself as a demure and proper southern lady yet this was deceiving as she was a prolific creative trailblazer who had collectors and dedicated readers from coast to coast and even in Europe She grew up during the Great Depression with only some vivid storytelling and pictures from the family Bible to inspire and kindle her artistic spirit However at the age of ten her career launched when her grandmother coaxed her with a box of crayons to milk the family cow her seventy year love affair with the arts was born Over the years she would express her creativity in many forms resulting in thousands of paintings sculptures songs poems and newspaper columns and along the way a variety of artful cakes as she ran a celebrated twenty five year cake business Her art appeared in all shapes sizes materials and eatability For most of her early career Gertrude dabbled with a variety of styles with subjects mostly centered around life in rural Mississippi and her spiritual life But in 1980 at the age of fifty seven she attended her first Mississippi Art Colony at Camp Jacob in Utica Mississippi Over the next fifteen years she would make her pilgrimage twice a year to be inspired by celebrated guest instructors from around the nation and connect with fellow artists The Colony was a major catalyst exposing her to new styles giving her encouragement and freedom to experiment Gertrude said of the Colony I never knew anything about abstract art but it fascinated me to no end Abstract art to me is like a beautiful melody without words In mixed media I am in another world and often am surprised at the piece that evolves from the torn watercolor papers The effect is a kaleidoscope of colors that makes the retinas dance This book features more than 150 images a dozen poems insightful essays from New York art dealer Stephen Rosenberg acclaimed southern cultural scholar and curator Pat Pinson and artist curator and instructor Rick Wilemon along with a foreword by Tommy King president of William Carey University and a chronicle of her life's journey by her son in law Thomas R Brooks As Rosenberg has said Gertrude Smith is a remarkable and authentic American woman who teaches us that talent and creativity combined with a humanistic spirit is both a state of mind and a state of grace at any age Book proceeds will benefit the Gertrude McCarty Smith Foundation for the Arts to bring access and passion for literature performance and visual arts to children in underserved communities throughout Mississippi

From My Window Phillip F. Story, 2012-07-13 The World Through My Window Bihaan Dubey, 2025-07-04 The World Through My Window is a collection of heartfelt poems written for days you cannot explain and nights you question yourself Through a series of poems on reflection self discovery and intricacies of life this book captures life in a raw and unfiltered way one where even the smallest moments matter It invites readers to pause reflect and look inward understanding that they are not alone in this journey of finding the meaning and purpose of their life one poem one page and one honest moment at a time Rover Barry Blackstone, 2017-10-06 Walk again in your childhood with a favorite animal friend as Pastor Blackstone remembers his boyhood and best friend a dog named Rover and their adventures together This series of remembrances and reminisces of a canine companion after over a half a century of time was invoked by an adulthood best friend a cat named Eddie highlighted in his own book Meows from the Manse Rover A Boy's Best Friend is a mental stroll through memory lane when the author was much younger and the world of his family's homestead was open for exploration and expedition with a mostly black German Shepherd and Collie mix at his side Travel with these best friends through the four seasons of nature covered in white and green and brown through the forest paths of north Perham a tiny agriculture community in Aroostook County Maine through the fields and the pastures of a 720 acre dairy and potato farm as they encounter woodland creatures of every sort and barnyard animals of every kind through meadows and mornings and moonsets that years later form wonderful illustrations and spiritual lessons for the young man who would grow up to become a pastor for nearly a half century You will hear from Rover himself as he barks out sermons that will stand the test of time and homestead homilies that will rebuke and reprove as the author makes a modern application to a boyhood experience with his dog Sit back and read and recall your own dog tales or cat tales if that is your favorite animal as you travel again with a lad and his Lassie with a shaver and his Rin Tin Tin through the early years of life when your best friend was a dog named Rover

Reading Is My Window Megan Sweeney,2010-02-15 Drawing on extensive interviews with ninety four women prisoners Megan Sweeney examines how incarcerated women use available reading materials to come to terms with their pasts negotiate their present experiences and reach toward different futures Foregrounding the voices of African American women Sweeney analyzes how prisoners read three popular genres narratives of victimization urban crime fiction and self help books She outlines the history of reading and education in U S prisons highlighting how the increasing dehumanization of prisoners has resulted in diminished prison libraries and restricted opportunities for reading Although penal officials have sometimes endorsed reading as a means to control prisoners Sweeney illuminates the resourceful ways in which prisoners educate and empower themselves through reading Given the scarcity of counseling and education in prisons women use books to make meaning from their experiences to gain guidance and support to experiment with new ways of being and to maintain connections with the world
