Affaires de Famille Marie-Claire Barnet, Edward Welch, 2007 What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors' incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature

Godard Between Identity and Difference John E. Drabinski, 2011-11-03 This book reads a series of Godard films as interventions in contemporary debate about the language of difference Godard has something he wants both to preserve singularity and destroy visual and aural totalitarianism How is it possible to speak about the Other How is it possible for the Other to speak Does all speaking about or by the Other render that speaking common thereby rendering what is different identical These questions gather together a number of issues that cross and intersect disciplinary boundaries signification representation ethics politics and so on The problematics with which Drabinski is concerned begin in the debate between Levinas and Derrida then later in dialogue with Blanchot and Irigaray To this extent Godard is particularly well suited as an interlocutor Godard's work especially in the 1970s is itself a self-conscious form of philosophy His films theorize themselves produce a reflexive sound image language and so in many ways match the very essence of philosophy thought thinking thought Still the medium of sound and image complicates any rendering of Godard's work as philosophy Godard produces a philosophically significant cinematic language rather than simply narrating or representing philosophical ideas in the medium of film And this language must be taken seriously in the context of the problem of difference For if difference is concerned with signification as such then the visual and aural retain equal rights with writing and all questions obtaining therein Indeed if part of the problem of speaking about or by the Other is how such speaking traffics in inscription then cinematic language is certainly an important and authentically complex intervention in that problem The nature of the debate in this project how the language of alterity is possible or impossible immediately breaks disciplinary borders between philosophy literary theory film studies and cultural studies What it means to engage with film in this context however is complicated To wit there are two standard treatments of film in philosophy Film is typically either an example of a philosophical position or philosophy is used to interpret motifs characters plot lines etc In neither case is film engaged as a form of philosophizing itself that is as a language engaged with philosophical problematics It is articulating exactly this engagement that this book takes as its primary task The aim of the project is to read Godard's work as primary texts with all the attention due the idiosyncratic language of those texts Framed by the debate about difference and signification these primary texts register and resonate as transformative interventions The overarching argument of the book is that Godard's conception and practice of cinematic language opens new important possibilities for thinking about radical alterity

The Gallup Poll Frank Newport, 2016-12-16 This work is the only complete compilation of polls taken by the Gallup Organization the world's most reliable and widely quoted research firm in calendar year 2015 It is an invaluable tool for ascertaining the pulse of American public opinion as it evolves over the course of a given year and over time documents changing public perceptions of crucial political economic and societal issues It is a necessity for any social science research

The Consecration of the Writer, 1750-1830 Paul Bänichou, 1999-01-01 The Consecration of the Writer is the definitive study of the first stages of a phenomenon that has profoundly affected world literature the process by which modern writers ceased to speak as representatives of some religious or political power and instead seized the mantle of spiritual authority in their own right speaking directly to and in the name of humanity Paul Bänichou identifies three great moments in this process the advent of the Enlightenment faith in philosophy and the rise of its literary concomitant the man of letters the literary creations of the counterrevolution and their surprising involvement in the elevation of the status of poetry and finally the fusion of these tendencies in the early phases of romanticism in France Bänichou deepens our understanding of romanticism by showing that it was a revision of the Enlightenment faith rather than a reaction against it The extraordinary depth of Bänichou's research the originality of his conclusions and the importance of his methodological reflections make this study an essential reference in the contemporary return to literary history

Information Technology Digest ,1996 Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan,1998-06-02

Probes the relationship between psychoanalysis and science and religion as well as defining the unconscious the repetition the transference and the drive as the underlying concepts of psycho analysis Figures of Desire Linda

Williams,1992-01-01 An important contribution to film theory Williams has a fluid assured style She is clearly in command of the subject She s made a strong and original argument for the psychoanalytic basis of Surrealism James Monaco author of The New Wave Repetition and Creation Radosvet Kolarov,2020-12-29 This book advances the notion of autotextuality

the dialogue between works in an author s oeuvre and the ways in which new texts are created in self repetition through the tracing and revisiting of past texts and the subsequent uncovering of undisclosed meanings unexhausted constructive principles and alternative versions Kolarov draws on cognitive models such as dual coding theory and conceptual blending to substantiate a theory of autotextuality and build on previous work on self repetition and difference to highlight the notion of discursive desire in which new meanings are generated through repetition and its distinct relationship to creativity Drawing on analyses of well established works in Bulgarian as well as the established oeuvres of such authors as Gogol Dostoevsky Kafka and Baudelaire the volume explores key themes in autotextuality such as the functions of creative memory the connections between word and image and the hermeneutic relationships and steps of transformation between texts This innovative work addresses topical questions of importance in literary theory today and will be of interest to students and scholars in literary studies and related areas of study within such fields as cognitive science quantum mechanics and psychology
