Grand Trunk Western Railway Co.*, 261 MICH 293 (1933) , 1933 82 Heart of War Hal Weidner, 2008-05 Captain Parker declares war on a politically powerful traitor to England Immediately Parker becomes a marked man All hell is visited upon him but Parker has been fighting battles since he was seven years old and is not easily daunted To survive he fights one brutal battle after another descending into war s inexpressible darkness The author of this well crafted thriller stages his war from a perspective that sheds light on our post 9 11 experiences We observe the overextended British Empire fighting two wars amidst the corruption resulting from war s confusion and excess This is an 18th century sea story It is however more than just a sea story in the way that Heart of War is more than a steamer trip into the Congo For its brilliance and its honesty it will win a place in the reader s heart Hal Weidner has emerged to write a spectacular yarn in the tradition of Patrick O Brian s Master and Commander Weidner s imagination creates a hair raising thriller that will keep you rooted to your easy chair with the doors locked Weidner s twists turns and subplots keep us guessing by pitting good and evil against an uneasy grey I could not put this book down Robert Sain psychiatrist and author In Hal Weidner s novel the beauty and strangeness of the past and of the sea are evoked in spare and lovely prose This novel brings to life a fully imagined reality in all its splendor Heart of War is suspenseful and languorous sparse and lyrical by a novelist fully capable of transporting the reader skillfully to its world Laura Kasischke Internationally renowned poet and novelist Hal Weidner s vivid depiction of warfare intrigue treachery and heroism among British American and French factions during the 18th Century mirrors eerily the tensions that we see and imagine shaping the world today Tom Zimmerman Editor The Huron River Review Doctor John Remembers John Henry Moore, 2023-05-16 This is the story told in nearly two hundred short recollections of a surgeon from a family of surgeons raised in the Arkansas oil country of the Jim Crow South A churchgoer from his childhood he came to a saving knowledge of Christ along with his wife Cathy only in the late 1970s And from that turning point they proved themselves to be choice servants of the Lord in countless ways in John s case as a deacon a surgeon in the Amazon region a denominational and parachurch board member a conference speaker in Eastern Europe a free clinic doctor in Southwest Missouri and a church staff member Along the way he took note of a host of engaging events characters and conversations whether among fellow Air Force doctors on parade with medical colleagues observing a gratifying ancillary effect of defibrillation or in the company of an aunt who introduced him to Roy Rogers and Stan Musial There was even an Elvis sighting The book is rich in theological ecclesiological missiological familial sociological psychological and medical narratives and observations The Politics of Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz Mihatsch, Michelle Sikes, 2021-12-06 Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch's research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re-centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends Sensory Environmental Relationships: Between Memories of the Past and Imaginings of the Future Blaž Bajič, Ana Svetel, 2023-09-26 Sensory environmental relationships understood as dynamic embodied and emplaced affective sensory perceptions in and of the environment invite us to remember the past infuse our experiences of the present and entice us to imagine the future Ethnographically specific socially and culturally nuanced approaches to environmental relationships require considerable conceptual and practical flexibility and inventiveness Reflecting this commitment Sensory Environmental Relationships aims to offer a new anthropological understanding of how in our individual and collective lives senses places and temporalities intersect While anthropologists have been studying the sensory environmental relationships in connection to people's pasts and presents futures remain conspicuously absent By bringing different timeframes into the foreground of the analysis this volume contributes to filling in the gap in our understanding of the human experience The volume's ethnographically based contributions address the questions of how embodied and emplaced practices of sensing while moving or staying in place in diverse environments engender inform and affect the processes of remembering and forgetting the past experiencing the present and imagining the future Drawing on the fields of environmental anthropology sensory studies studies of movement and mobility memory studies and other related sub-disciplines as well as diverse epistemologically and methodologically experimental approaches the volume explores the ways in which sensory environmental relationships touch upon our pasts presents and futures Slavery, Memory and Religion in Southeastern Ghana, c.1850-Present Meera Venkatachalam, 2015-08-10 Based on a decade of fieldwork in southeastern Ghana and analysis of secondary sources this book aims to reconstruct the religious history of the Anlo Ewe peoples from the 1850s In particular it focuses on a corpus of rituals collectively known as Fofie which derived their legitimacy from engaging with the memory of the slave holding past The Anlo developed a sense of discomfort about their agency in slavery in the early twentieth century which they articulated through practices such as ancestor veneration spirit possession and by forging links with descendants of peoples they formerly enslaved Conversion to Christianity engagement with modernity trans Atlantic conversations with diasporan Africans and citizenship of the postcolonial state coupled with structural changes within the religious system which resulted in the decline in Fofie s popularity gradually altered the moral emphases of legacies of slavery in the Anlo historical imagination as the twentieth century progressed I Remember Clyde E.
