Augustine Confessions S I Viii:

St. Augustine's Confessions Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1912 St. Augustine's confessions Aurelius Augustinus,1922

Augustine and the Environment John Doody,Kim Paffenroth,Mark Smillie,2016-09-30 This volume brings into dialogue the ancient wisdom of Augustine of Hippo a bishop of the early Christian Church of the fourth and fifth centuries with contemporary theologians and ethicists on the topic of the environment and humanity's place in and responsibility to it The contributors vary widely in their estimation of how sustained and useful such a dialogue might be from outright dismissal of the church father to extended speculation with him and in his spirit Their conclusions impact our views of God and both human and non human creation Such engagement should influence any future discussion of how Christianity and environmentalism can interact or influence one another The Confessions of Augustine Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1927

Memory, Images, and the English Corpus Christi Drama T. Lerud,2016-04-30 Bringing together memory theory medieval cognition of images and the English Corpus Christi drama in an innovative way this study argues that the relationship of frames or backgrounds to the image has been misunderstood in the study of drama Saint Augustine's

Confessions Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),1912 Original Sin in Augustine's Confessions Paul Rigby,1987 The idea of original sin owes its development more to Augustine than to any other individual We cannot understand this idea much less believe it unless we consider his primary motive for developing it His Confessions a masterpiece of personal reflection reveals the psychological dynamic that renders a free person's implication in social and historical evil irreversible from the beginning The author traces this interior bondage of the will through Augustine's own life from his infancy and youth through his dramatic conversion to his mature years of reflection and ministry as bishop It presents original sin not only autobiographically but also historically as the first and universal sin of mankind and primordially as the fundamental cause and meaning at the root of all moral impotence and sin This volume argues that the doctrine of original sin stands together with the doctrine of grace as the foundation of Augustine's teachings on confession and salvation it rejects a recent development in Augustine studies that reduces Augustine's doctrine of original sin to an ancillary polemical role as a weapon in the arsenal against Pelagian voluntarism Above all it allows this doctrine to live now as it did for Augustine by permitting us to observe as he reflects theologically upon his personal experience of God Book jacket The Sermons of John
