Atom Egoyan:

Atom Egoyan Atom Egoyan, 2010 Collected interviews with the Canadian director of such acclaimed films as The Sweet Hereafter Felicia's Journey and Exotica Atom Egoyan Emma Wilson, 2009-01-21 The films of Canadian Armenian director Atom Egoyan immerse the viewer in a world of lush sensuality melancholia and brooding obsession From his earliest films Next of Kin and Family Viewing to his coruscating Exotica and recent projects such as Where the Truth Lies Egoyan has paid infinite attention to narrative intricacy and psychological complexity Traumatic loss and its management through ritual return as themes in his films in particular in relation to his own Armenian heritage In this study Emma Wilson closely analyzes the range of Egoyan's films and their visual textures emotional control and perverse beauty Egoyan's own comments on his films thread throughout Wilson's analyses and the book features a recent interview with the director An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy, 2018-06-05 In An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy offers an engaging overview of an important trend the filmmaking of postcolonial Third World and other displaced individuals living in the West How their personal experiences of exile or diaspora translate into cinema is a key focus of Naficy's work Although the experience of expatriation varies greatly from one person to the next the films themselves exhibit stylistic similarities from their open and closed form aesthetics to their nostalgic and memory driven multilingual narratives and from their emphasis on political agency to their concern with identity and transgression of identity The author explores such features while considering the specific histories of individuals and groups that engender divergent experiences institutions and modes of cultural production and consumption Treating creativity as a social practice he demonstrates that the films are in dialogue not only with the home and host societies but also with audiences many of whom are also situated astride cultures and whose desires and fears the filmmakers wish to express Comparing these films to Hollywood films Naficy calls them accented Their accent results from the displacement of the filmmakers their alternative production modes and their style Accented cinema is an emerging genre one that requires new sets of viewing skills on the part of audiences Its significance continues to grow in terms of output stylistic variety cultural diversity and social impact This book offers the first comprehensive and global coverage of this genre while presenting a framework in which to understand its intricacies Canada's Best Features Eugene P. Walz, 2002 Long recognized for outstanding National Film Board documentaries and innovative animated movies Canada has recently emerged from the considerable shadow of the Hollywood elephant with a series of feature films that have captured the attention of audiences around the world This is the first anthology to focus on Canada's feature films those acknowledged as its very best With essays by senior academics and leading scholars from across the country as well as some fresh new voices Canada's Best Features offers penetrating analyses of fifteen award winning films Internationally acclaimed directors David Cronenberg Atom Egoyan Denys Arcand and Claude Jutra are represented here Noteworthy films include Mon oncle Antoine often cited as Canada's number one film of all time such Cannes Festival favourites as Le dclin de l'empire am ricain and Exotica and cult films Careful by Guy Maddin and Masala by Srinivas Krishna The essays offer the latest word on these films and filmmakers done from a variety of perspectives Some of the films have never been examined in depth before Complete filmographies and bibliographies accompany each essay A contextualizing introduction by Professor Gene Walz provides the necessary overview An annotated bibliography of books on the Canadian film industry completes this impressive package

Image and Territory Jennifer Burwell, Monique Tschofen, 2007 In a culture that often understands formal experimentation or theoretical argument to be antithetical to pleasure Atom Egoyan has nevertheless consistently appealed to wide audiences around the world If films like The Adjuster Calendar Exotica and The Sweet Hereafter have ensured him international cult status as one of the most revered of all contemporary directors Egoyan's forays into installation art and opera have provided evidence of his versatility and confirmed his talents Throughout his career Atom Egoyan has shown himself to possess the rarest kind of singularity As Jonathan Romney puts it Egoyan's preoccupations and tropes have been so consistent that he's practically created his own genre³ 1995 8 Hrag Vartanian adds 2Egoyanesque has become a word to film aficionados commonly understood to mean a cinematic moment that examines sexuality technology and alienation in the modern world³ 2004 For this singularity Egoyan is widely hailed as a true auteur someone carrying on the legacy of the European art house traditions of Bergman Godard and Truffaut Certainly his work bears a most recognizable signature there is no confusing an Egoyan work with anyone else's Like his art house predecessors Egoyan clearly intends that his work be as Dudley Andrew puts it 2read rather than consumed 3 that is viewed meditatively reflected upon and discussed 2000 24 And indeed in this world in which filmmaking has become commonplace where as Egoyan has said 2what used to be a rarified activity is now available to anyone with a digital camera and a computer³ 2001b 18 he intends through much of his work to recall an earlier image culture in which artists had an ability to produce something that gained its power precisely through its rarity

Great Canadian Film Directors George Melnyk, 2007-06-15 Film directors articulate creative visions that provide insights into national cultures 18 essays highlight Canada's prominent Anglophone and Francophone filmmakers

Cultural Producers In Perilous States George E. Marcus, 1997-03-02 Ten innovative interviews explore how producers of documentary media filmmakers journalists and artists located in societies considered marginal to the high tech global centers respond to local and international audiences in creating their works We meet a South African playwright who is shaping a distinctive form of activist journalism a New Guinean producer who manages several media careers Polish and German filmmakers developing critical documentaries on compromised new orders a Columbian artist who provides powerful representations of endemic violence in her society and writers from Martinique and Argentina with varied careers in the arts media and politics who provide tragicomic accounts of the marginal situations of their societies Cynical hopeful ambivalent all at once these cultural producers in perilous states share a keen awareness of the marginality of their societies in the broader context of global change and associate integrity in the reporting of local events with a critical politics of representation The Holocaust Ryan Barrick, Abigail S Gruber, David Misal, 2014-04-11 This book is a collection of seventeen scholarly articles which analyze Holocaust testimonies photographs documents literature and films as well as teaching methods in Holocaust education Most of these essays were originally presented as papers at the Millersville University Conferences on the Holocaust and Genocide from 2010 to 2012 In their articles the contributors discuss the Holocaust in concentration camps and ghettos as well as the Nazis methods of exterminating Jews The authors analyze the reliability of photographic evidence and eyewitness testimonies about the Holocaust The essays also describe the psychological impact of the Holocaust on survivors witnesses and perpetrators and upon Jewish identity in general after the Second World War The scholars explore the problems of the memorialization of the Holocaust in the Soviet Union and the description of the Holocaust in Russian literature Several essays are devoted to the representation of the Holocaust in film and trace the evolution of its depiction from the early Holocaust movies of the late 1940s early 1950s to modern Holocaust fantasy films They also show the influence of Holocaust cinema on feature films about the Armenian Genocide Lastly several authors propose innovative methods of teaching the Holocaust to college students The younger generation of students may see the Holocaust as an event of the distant past so new teaching methods are needed to explain its significance This collection of essays based on new multi disciplinary research and innovative methods of teaching opens many unknown aspects and provides new perspectives on the Holocaust Shooting the Family Patricia Pisters, Wim Staat, 2005 Shooting the Family a collection of essays on the contemporary media landscape explores ever changing representations of family life on a global scale The contributors argue that new recording technologies allows families an unusual kind of freedom until now unknown to define and respond to their own lives and memories Recently released videos made by young migrants as they discover new homelands and resolve conflicts with their parents for example reverberate alongside the dark portrayals of family life in the formal filmmaking of Ang Lee This book will be a boon to scholars of film theory and media studies as well as to anyone interested in the construction of the family in a postmodern world Performing Exile, Performing Self Y. Meerzon, 2012-04-05 This book examines the life and art of those contemporary artists who by force or by choice find themselves on other shores It argues that the exilic challenge enables the migrant artist to re establish new artistic devices new laws and a new language of communication in both his everyday life and his artistic work
