Brian Stoddart

Black Regime At Dharasana:

The Black Regime at Dharasana Gujarat Provincial Congress Committee, 1930 British Propaganda and Wars of Empire Christopher Tuck, 2016-04-15 Influence is a slippery concept yet one of tremendous relevance for those wishing to understand global politics From debates on the changing sources of power in the international system through to analyses of its value as an alternative to the active use of force as a policy instrument influence has become a recurrent theme in discussions of international relations and foreign policy In order to provide a better understanding of the multifaceted and shifting nature of influence this volume looks at how the British government employed various forms of pressure and persuasion to achieve its goals across the twentieth century By focusing on Britain a global actor with great power objectives but declining physical means the collection provides a wide range of case studies to assess how influence was brought to bear on a wide array of non western cultures and societies It furthermore allows for an assessment of just how effective or ineffective British efforts were at influencing non Western targets over a hundred years of operations By shedding important light on the efficacy of British efforts to sustain and advance its interests in the twentieth century the volume will be of interest not only to historians but to anyone interested in contemporary problems surrounding the operation of influence as a foreign policy tool A People's Collector in the British Raj Brian Stoddart, 2011 Media and Utopia Arvind Rajagopal, Anupama Rao, 2017-07-05 Collective political projects have become ephemeral and are subject to radical forms of erasure through cooptation division redefinition or intimidation in present times Media and Utopia responds to the resulting crisis of the social by investigating the links between mediation and political imagination This volume addresses those utopian spaces historically constituted through media and analyses the conditions that made them possible Individual essays deal with non Western histories of technopolitics through distinctive perspectives on how to conceive the relationship between social form everyday life and utopian possibility and by examining a range of media formats and genres from print sound and film to new media With contributions from major scholars in the field this book will be of interest to researchers and scholars of media studies culture studies sociology modern South Asian history and politics Publications Proscribed by the Government of India , 1985 Land, Water, Language and Politics in Andhra Brian Stoddart, 2014-03-14 This book explains how access to and use of land water and language helped shape Andhra politics in India from 1850 down to the present day After independence the debate over land reform and policies on irrigation has shaped the fortunes of various governments while the debate over the make up of the language based state has stimulated separatist movements like the one in support of Telangana The book discusses how British innovations in irrigation in coastal Andhra in the mid nineteenth century transformed the economy there from food crops to cash crops and created new markets for local entrepreneurs This stimulated increased education and social reform in the region which in turn supported new politics in search of constitutional concessions The drive for a Telugu language based province then arose in concert and those political resources were then used to determine local patterns down to independence The 1930s rise of the socialists then the communist organisations was an extension of land and water tax debates which impacted the political nature of development both before and after independence This is one of the first books on Andhra that recounts this story and is based on extensive archival research exploring the deep relationships between land water language and politics It would be of primary interest to those studying modern nationalism in India natural resource management Indian politics and economic growth

The Salt Thief: Gandhi's Heroic March to Freedom Neal Bascomb, 2024-09-03 The dramatic story of Gandhi and India's long march to freedom by award winning author Neal Bascomb In 1930 the Indian people long ruled by their British occupiers were at a breaking point No more could many stand the terrible demands of colonial rule At this pivotal moment Mohandas Gandhi who had suffered firsthand for decades the cruelty of his oppressors saw an opportunity to win his people's freedom And so Gandhi led a small band of his followers on a grueling march from his ashram in western India to the Arabian Sea After 24 days and 241 miles under a withering sun the marchers arrived on the Dandi seashore There Gandhi scooped up a handful of salt to protest the much hated British salt tax demonstrating to the world the injustice of Britain's yoke and setting the stage for a popular national uprising In the dramatic months that followed Gandhi led acts of nonviolent resistance against the British Raj across the country that would eventually culminate in a brutal crackdown But Gandhi and those who bravely stood with him faced arrest beatings and even bullets without ever raising a hand in retaliation These events inspired India to demand its liberty from Britain awakened the world to a movement that would forever change the course of history and inspired generations of freedom fighters all over the globe Award winning author Neal Bascomb chronicles what was arguably Gandhi's most notable campaign in his struggle for India's independence His focus on nonviolent protest and revolutionary action introduces young readers to a pivotal historical moment with timely implications for today's world Scholastic Focus is the premier home of thoroughly researched beautifully written and thoughtfully designed works of narrative nonfiction aimed at middle grade and young adult readers These books help readers learn about the world in which they live and develop their critical thinking skills so that they may become dynamic citizens who are able to analyze and understand our past participate in essential discussions about our present and work to grow and build our future
