Black Light Selected Writings From American Negro Literature:

Black Light Talmadge Spratt, 1973 Afro-American Poetry and Drama, 1760-1975 William P. French, Geneviève Fabre, 1979 African American Literature Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2019-11-15 This essential volume provides an overview of and introduction to African American writers and literary periods from their beginnings through the 21st century. This compact encyclopedia aimed at students selects the most important authors, literary movements, and key topics for them to know. Entries cover the most influential and highly regarded African American writers including novelists, playwrights, poets, and nonfiction writers. The book covers key periods of African American literature such as the Harlem Renaissance, the Black Arts Movement, and the Civil Rights Era, and touches on the influence of the vernacular including blues and hip hop. The volume provides historical context for critical viewpoints including feminism, social class, and racial politics. Entries are organized A to Z and provide biographies that focus on the contributions of key literary figures as well as overviews, background information, and definitions for key subjects. The Collected Writings of Charles H. Long Charles H. Long, 2018-02-22 Charles H. Long is one of the most influential and pioneering scholars in the study of religion from the past 50 years. This is the first comprehensive collection of his writings, edited by Long himself, and contains 38 pieces, including both published and previously unpublished articles, lectures, an interview, and two book reviews. The foreword is provided by Jennifer Reid, a former student of Long. The collection is divided into four thematic parts: America and the Study of Religion, Theory and Method in the Study of Religion, African American Religion in the United States, and Kindling Embers and Sparks. Long's introduction provides much-awaited insight into his reflections on his work, expanding on questions that remained unanswered in his classic and influential text Significations: Signs, Symbols, and Images in the Interpretation of Images (1986). In particular, the new introductory essay explores the significance of ellipses, which is omitted in the projected spaces of the Other in the study of religion. Considered the preeminent founder and advocate of the study of Black Religion, Long was exploring religion and colonialism and the importance of Afro-American religion as early as the 1960s and early 1970s, and this collection of his thinking, which moves across the formations of religious studies, African diasporic studies, and social and cultural theory, is a must-have addition for any institutional or personal library. Black Times, 1973 Afro-Caribbean Women's Writing and Early American Literature LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-08-09 Afro-Caribbean Women's Writing and Early American Literature is both pedagogical and critical. The text begins by re-evaluating the poetry of Phillis Wheatley for its political commentary, demonstrates how Hurston bridges several literary genres and geographies, and introduces Black women writers of the Caribbean to some American audiences. It sheds light on lesser-discussed Black women playwrights of the Harlem Renaissance and re-evaluates the turn-of-the-century concept Noble Womanhood in light of the Cult of Domesticity. Richard Wright Kenneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright (1908-1960) was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947, he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics The African American Guide to Writing & Publishing Non Fiction Jewell Parker Rhodes,2002-02-05 In college and graduate school Jewell Parker Rhodes never encountered a single reading assignment or exercise that featured a person of color Now she has made it her mission to rectify the situation gathering advice and inspiring tips tailored for African Americans seeking to express their life experiences Comprehensive and totally energizing the African American Guide to Writing and Publishing Nonfiction bursts with supportive topics such as Finding your voice Getting to know your literary ancestors Overcoming a bruised ego and finding the determination to pursue your dreams Gathering material and conducting research Tapping sweet bittersweet and joyful memories Knowing when to keep revising and when to let go The guide also features unforgettable excerpts from luminaries such as Maya Angelou Brent Staples Houston Baker and pointers from bestselling African American authors Patrice Gaines E Lynn Harris James McBride John Hope Franklin Pearl Cleage Edwidge Danticat and many others It is a uniquely nurturing and informative touchstone for affirming bearing witness leaving a legacy and celebrating the remarkable journey of the self 50 Events That Shaped African American History Jamie J. Wilson,2019-09-19 This two volume work celebrates 50 notable achievements of African Americans highlighting black contributions to U S history and examining the ways black accomplishments shaped American culture This two volume encyclopedia offers a unique look at the African American experience from the arrival of the first 20 Africans at Jamestown through the launch of the Black Lives Matter movement and the Ferguson Protests It illustrates subjects such as the Jim Crow period the Brown v Board of Education case that overturned segregation Jackie Robinson's landmark integration of major league baseball and the election of Barack Obama as president of the United States Drawing from almost 400 years of U S history the work documents the experiences and impact of black people on every aspect of American life Presented chronologically the selected events each include at least one primary source to provide the reader with a first person perspective These range from excerpts of speeches given by famous African American figures to programs from the March on Washington The remarkable stories collected here bear witness to the strength of a group of people who chose to survive and found ways to work collectively to force America to live up to the promise of its founding African American Almanac Lean'tin Bracks,2023-10-17 Courage resilience and triumph Celebrating the African American experience the extraordinary people and their profound influence on American
