Black Power And White Protestants A Christian Response To The New Negro Pluralism:

Black Power and White Protestants Joseph C. Hough, 1968 Black Power and White Protestants Joseph C. Hough, 1968 Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 Student Activism and Civil Rights in Mississippi James P. Marshall, 2013-03-11 In the 1890s Mississippi society still drew a sharp line between its African American and white communities by creating a repressive racial system that ensured white supremacy by legally segregating black residents and removing their basic citizenship and voting rights Over the ensuing decades white residents suppressed African Americans who dared defy that system with an array of violence terror and murder In 1960 students supporting civil rights moved into Mississippi and challenged this repressive racial order by encouraging African Americans to reassert the rights guaranteed under the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution The ensuing social upheaval changed the state forever In Student Activism and Civil Rights in Mississippi James P Marshall a former civil rights activist tells the complete story of the quest for civil rights in Mississippi Using a voluminous array of sources as well as his own memories Marshall weaves together an astonishing account of student protestors and local activists who risked their lives for equality standing between southern resistance and federal inaction Their efforts and the horrific violence inflicted on them helped push many non southerners and the federal government into action culminating in the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and the 1965 Voting Rights Act measures that destroyed legalized segregation and disfranchisement Ultimately Marshall contends student activism in Mississippi helped forge a consensus by reminding the American public of its forgotten promises and by educating the nation to the fact that African Americans in the South deserved to live as free and equal citizens Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach, 1988-01-01 With Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach provides a basic introductory text on Christian ethics He has designed a challenging work that grapples with the ethical questions surrounding modern day problems from the perspective of Protestant theology and tradition His two part format is especially helpful for study Black Radicals and Civil Rights Mainstream, 1954-1970 Herbert H. Haines, 2002-11 Haines argues that expanding black radicalism enhanced the successes of mainstream organizations and furthered many of the goals pursued by moderate black leaders Womanist Ethics and the Cultural Production of Evil Emilie M. Townes, 2006-11-13 This groundbreaking book provides an analytical tool to understand how and why evil works in the world as it does Deconstructing memory history and myth as received wisdom the volume critically examines racism sexism poverty and stereotypes Reconstructing Christian Theology Rebecca S. Chopp, Mark Lewis Taylor, Christian theology needs to be reconstructed in light of recent and momentous intellectual changes social revolutions and steep pedagogical challenges That is the conviction of many of North America's leading theologians whose close collaboration over several years bring us this exciting volume Reconstructing Christian Theology introduces theology in such a way that readers can discern the relevance of historical materials pose theological questions and begin to think theologically for themselves Further like other projects of the Workgroup on Constructive Theology this volume stems from a deep desire to model a credible creative and engaged contemporary theology So each chapter tackles major Christian teaching juxtaposes it with a significant social or cultural challenge and then reconstructs each in light of the other The result is an innovative and compelling way to learn how theology can contribute to rethinking the most pressing issues of our day

The Career of Andrew Schulze, 1924-1968 Kathryn M. Galchutt, 2005 Andrew Schulze was a white pastor of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod who spent his early ministry serving black mission churches in Springfield Illinois 1924 1928 St Louis Missouri 1928 1947 and Chicago Illinois 1947 1954 He was an early proponent of integration during these years fighting continual battles to get black students admitted to Lutheran schools In the 1930s he began to lobby to end the mission status of black churches and black schools a goal which was finally realized in 1947 In 1941 he wrote a treatise on race relations in the church
