Black Man Of The Nile And His Family:

Black Man of the Nile and His Family Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1989 In a masterful and unique manner Dr Ben uses Black Man of the Nile to challenge and expose Europeanized African history Order Black Man of the Nile here Black Man of the Nile and His Family Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1989 Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2005 In the 1960s Black Studies emerged as both an academic field and a radical new ideological paradigm Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama Black Studies Temple U both influential and renowned scholars have compiled an encyclopedia for students high school and beyond and general readers It presents analysis of key individuals events a We the Black Jews Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1993 Dr Ben destroys the myth of a white Jewish race and the bigotry that has denied the existence of an African Jewish culture He establishes the legitimacy of contemporary Black Jewish culture in Africa and the diaspora and predates its origin before ancient Nile Valley civilizations Man, Know Thyself Rick Duncan, 2013-07-09 Man Know Thyself is perhaps one of the world's oldest and most important sayings This adage was originally coined by Imhotep the world's first multi genius and perhaps the greatest creative mortal individual who ever lived Imhotep lived over five and a half thousand years ago from our present age It must be said immediately that Imhotep was an African He is among our first Notable Ancestors Considering Imhotep's instruction it means that as individuals as a family collectively as a people a community a society or a nation we should know ourselves that is who we are This includes knowledge of who spawned us where we have been and where we currently are Knowing this as our Notable Ancestor and Grandmaster Teacher Baba Dr John Henrik Clarke has said will tell us who we are and where we must get to Who we are is dependent on who we were Who we were should determine who we should be To emphasise the point Marcus Garvey another of our most important Notable Ancestors frequently reiterated this advice when he reminded us that our first obligation is to know ourselves He told us that we should make our knowledge about us so complete so as to make it impossible for others to take advantage of us He told us that in order to know ourselves we must know who our Ancestors were and what they achieved We would then realize who we are and what we are capable of achieving This is the meaning of the African adage and Sankofa symbol of looking back in order to go forward The importance of knowing our ancestors has been summed up in an old Native American saying that It is the spirit of our ancestors that should guide our path There is a sense however that Africans have forgotten our ancestors Because of this there is no spirit to guide us and so Africans are lost and confused The roots of African spirituality and culture have been made redundant Yet as Dr Clarke points out the umbilicord that tied Africans to our spiritual and cultural roots have only been stretched It has never been broken It is for Africans to come to this realization and to rediscover the spirit of our ancestors This volume lists some of our Notable Ancestors in the hope that knowledge about them and their achievements will aid some of us in understanding where we have been who we presently are and consequently who we must become Ultimately it is hoped that we may use this knowledge to reconnect with the spirit of our Ancestors and let them be our guide This volume is based on the truth about Africans and therefore correcting what is told about us This corrective knowledge of us is important because as Imhotep said Know the truth and the truth shall set you free This means being free to interpret our own story and to define who we are This is crucial because although history is a witness to the truths history has been stolen by others who have hidden the truths about us History has never been true or kind to Africans and therefore it cannot tell us about us Yet as Peter Tosh intimated we cannot come to a consciousness of ourselves of who we are if we do not know the truths about us History has been described as the Queen of the academic subjects So important is History that it is said that whoever controls history controls the future In one sense education in general and history in particular is about teaching us who we are History teaches who we are so as to help us to know where we belong in our community or society Africans cannot know where we belong in society however because our story has been told by others those who own history Africans are therefore unaware of who we are because what is known about us is not the truth about us The story of Africans the oldest people on earth like the history of the world is taught by others Yet these others came into the world thousands of years after Africans had already established great civ

Imagining the World O. R. Dathorne, 1994-03-23 This is a study of the manner in which certain mythical notions of the world become accepted as fact Dathorne shows how particular European concepts such as El Dorado the Fountain of Youth a race of Amazons and monster including cannibal images were first associated with the Orient After the New World encounter they were repositioned to North and South America The book examines the way in which Arabs and Africans are conscripted into the view of the world and takes an unusual non Eurocentric viewpoint of how Africans journeyed to the New World and Europe participating in what may be considered an early stage of world exploration and discovery The study concludes by looking at European travel literature from the early journeys of St Brendan through the Viking voyages and up to Marco Polo and Sir John Mandeville In all these instances the encounters seem to justify mythical belief Dathorne s interest in the subject is both intellectual and passionate since coming from Guyana he was very much part of this malformed Weltschmerz

Western European and British Barbarity, Savagery, and Brutality in the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade Dr. Robinson A. Milwood PhD, 2013-06-14 Man makes history in a fashion and history also makes man As with other men the historical experience of the African over the centuries has had a profound effect on his self image as well as on his perception of the external world Perhaps more than other men the African in pre colonial times developed a strong historical tradition and his perception of himself and his world came to depend very much on his view of the past European colonialism brief as it was produced a traumatic effect largely because it tried to impose on the African a gross distortion of his historical tradition Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti s intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin

Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti s intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers Diversity and Multiculturalism Shirley R. Steinberg, 2009 This reader demands that we understand diversity and multiculturalism by identifying the ways in which curriculum has been written and taught and by redefining the field with an equitable lens freeing it from the dominant cultural curriculum The book problematizes the issue of whiteness for instance as not being the opposite of blackness or person of color but rather a meta description for our dominant culture Issues are also addressed that are usually left out of the discussion about diversity and multiculturalism this reader includes essays on physical diversity geographic diversity and difference in sexualities This is the quintessential collection of work by critical scholars committed to redefining the conversation on multiculturalism and diversity Space Is the Place John Szwed, 2020-04-30 Considered by many to be a founder of Afrofuturism Sun Ra aka Herman Blount was a composer keyboardist bandleader philosopher entrepreneur poet and self proclaimed extraterrestrial from Saturn He recorded over 200 albums with his Arkestra which dressed in Egypto space costumes played everything from boogie woogie and swing to fusion and free jazz John Szwed s Space is the Place is the definitive biography of this musical polymath who was one of the twentieth century s greatest avant garde artists and intellectuals Charting the whole of Sun Ra s life and career Szwed outlines how after years in Chicago as a blues and swing band pianist Sun Ra set out in the 1950s to impart his views about the galaxy black people and spiritual matters by performing music with the Arkestra that was as vital and innovative as it was mercurial and confounding Szwed s readers whether they are just discovering Sun Ra or are among the legion of poets artists intellectuals and musicians who consider him a spiritual godfather will find that indeed space is the place
