Schultz,2017-06-05 AFTER an absence of many years I have returned to visit for a time my Blackfeet relatives and friends and we are camping along the mountain trails where in the long ago we hunted buffalo and elk and moose and all the other game peculiar to this region To day we pitched our lodges under Rising Wolf Mountain that massive sky piercing snow crested height of red and gray rock which slopes up so steeply from the north shore of Upper Two Medicine Lake This afternoon we saw upon it some two or three thousand feet up toward its rugged crest a few bighorn and a 2 Rocky Mountain goat But we may not kill them Said Tail Feathers Coming over the Hill There they are Our meat but the whites have taken them from us even as they have taken everything else that is ours And so we are eating beef where once we feasted upon the rich ribs and loins of game which tasted all the better because we trailed and killed it and with no little labor brought it to the womenfolk in camp Blackfeet Tales of Glacier National Park (Classic Reprint) James Willard Schultz,2017-10-17
