Invisible Terrain Stephen J. Ross, 2017-07-25 In his debut collection Some Trees 1956 the American poet John Ashbery poses a question that resonates across his oeuvre and much of modern art How could he explain to them his prayer that nature not art might usurp the canvas When Ashbery asks this strange question he joins a host of transatlantic avant gardists from the Dadaists to the 1960s neo avant gardists and beyond who have dreamed of turning art into nature of creating art that would be valid solely on its own terms in the way nature itself is valid in the way a landscape not its picture is aesthetically valid Clement Greenberg 1939 Invisible Terrain reads Ashbery as a bold intermediary between avant garde anti mimeticism and the long western nature poetic tradition In chronicling Ashbery's articulation of a completely new kind of realism and his engagement with figures ranging from Wordsworth to Warhol the book presents a broader case study of nature's dramatic transformation into a resolutely unnatural aesthetic resource in 20th century art and literature The story begins in the late 1940s with the Abstract Expressionist valorization of process surface and immediacy summed up by Jackson Pollock's famous quip I am Nature that so influenced the early New York School poets It ends with Breezeway a poem about Hurricane Sandy Along the way the project documents Ashbery's strategies for literalizing the stream of consciousness metaphor his negotiation of pastoral and politics during the Vietnam War and his investment in bad nature poetry

Nourishment for the Spiritual Pilgrimage Vernon T. Jones, 2017-02-16 In the morning while it was still very dark he got up and went out to a deserted place and there he prayed Mark 1:35 Jesus taught by his words and actions He went by himself to pray when he was tired when faced with upcoming trying events or when he just wanted to be alone in the presence of his Lord He gave us guidance about what to pray how to pray and why to pray and was very familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures Thus if we want to become Jesus disciple we should follow his model and invest time and emotional energy into prayer Bible study and reflection Nourishment For The Spiritual Pilgrimage provides an aid for those who want to participate in the spiritual pilgrimage of becoming a lifelong disciple of Jesus Christ It offers insight and support for those who daily want to turn their hearts souls and minds to God's will in their lives as they strive to help in bringing about God's kingdom in this present time There are countless other devotionals but hopefully this can offer something that many of the others may not a specific focus on the concept of discipleship
