Assessment in Mental Handicap Norma Victoria Raynes, 1987 Assessment in Mental Handicap James Hogg, Norma Victoria Raynes, 1987 Assessment of Behavior Problems in Persons with Mental Retardation Living in the Community Eleanor Dibble, David B. Gray, 1990 Assessment Mental Handicap James Hogg, 1986-12-01 Dictionary of Mental Handicap Mary P. Lindsey, 2002-03-11

Over recent years the policy of isolating and institutionalizing mentally handicapped people has gradually been dismantled and a major shift to community care has taken place. But integration within the general community and access to special services has greatly increased the number of people with a need to know about mental handicap. Each profession or discipline has its own terminology; nowadays one must be conversant with all of them. In this comprehensive dictionary Mary Lindsey has brought together terms and concepts from a wide variety of fields. Approximately 2 400 entries are included, ranging in length from concise explanations to encyclopaedic essays, but always expressed in clear, simple language. Where appropriate suggestions for further reading are made and possible sources of further information given. An extensive system of cross references leads the interested reader further and makes valuable connections between entries. The medical aspects of mental handicap, its causes, prognoses and treatments are of course covered in detail. But although the cause of mental handicap may be medical, subsequent interventions may be sociological, psychological, educational, medical, paramedical or psychiatric. This is reflected in the choice of entries, making the Dictionary an invaluable source of reference for all those involved with mentally handicapped people in any capacity whatsoever.

Assessing Adults with Intellectual Disabilities James Hogg, Arturo Langa, 2008-04-15. This handbook helps professionals working with adults with intellectual disabilities to establish the needs of individuals through systematic assessment and to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the service they provide. A comprehensive handbook for professionals working with adults with intellectual disabilities. Enables these professionals to establish the needs of individuals. Helps them to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the service they provide. Expert contributions include conceptual chapters and descriptions of selected assessment instruments. Covers the full spectrum of need, including adults with mental health difficulties, behavioural problems, forensic needs, and assessment of people with profound intellectual and multiple disabilities, and those suspected of developing dementia.

Assessment and Treatment of Patients with Coexisting Mental Illness and Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Richard Ries, 1996-09 Essentials of Intellectual Disability: Assessment and Identification Alan W. Brue, Linda Wilmschurst, 2016-03-31. Brue's Essentials of Intellectual Disability is a concise, up-to-date overview of intellectual disability evaluation and assessment. This text offers a practical, concise overview of the nature of intellectual disability and adaptive skills functioning in children, adolescents, and adults. Coverage includes the latest information on prevalence, causes, differential diagnoses, behavioral and social concerns, test instruments, and the new DSM-5 diagnostic criteria. The discussion promotes a deeper understanding of the use of assessment data to inform interventions in clinical practice. Designed for easy navigation each chapter highlights important points and key cautions to allow quick reference without sacrificing depth A sample assessment report illustrates how findings should be communicated to better inform treatment giving you a practical reference to ensure comprehensive reporting In 2013 the DSM 5 conceptualization of intellectual disabilities was significantly changed It s important for professionals to have access to the most current guidelines from a variety of sources and this book compiles them all into a single reference

Assessment of Individuals with Mental Retardation Ronald L. Taylor, 1997

Ageing and Mental Handicap James Hogg, Steve Moss, Diana Cooke, 2024-05-10

In the 1980s there was growing interest in the topic of ageing and learning disabilities for two principal reasons First the life expectancy of people with learning disabilities had risen significantly over the previous decades and many once infancy had been survived could expect a life span similar to that of non disabled people Secondly a growing commitment on the part of the government and service providers to make provision for people with disabilities in the community rather than in institutions had focused attention on this group Originally published in 1988 reissued here with a new foreword this book was one of the first on this subject It examines epidemiology and mortality and medical and psychiatric issues compared with non disabled older people It considers how people with learning disabilities change in intellectual and adaptive function with age the nature of family relationships relevant therapeutic programmes and policy and the development of services The book represented a major review of a hitherto neglected topic and would interest gerontologists psychologists and professional health social and educational staff concerned with the welfare of older people with learning disabilities This book is a re issue originally published in 1988 The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication
